Social News of Southeastern Florida

DELRAY

MRS. J. L. LOVE was hostess to the Thimble Club Friday afternoon at her attractive home on Swinton avenue. After an afternoon spent most pleasantly in sewing and chatting, refreshments of chicken salad, sandwiches, coffee, whipped cream, saltines, nuts and mints were served. Those present were Mrs. J. W. Ives of Ojus, Mrs. J. R. Cason, Sr., Mrs. J. R. Cason, Jr., Mrs. Virginia Flodding, Mrs. A. E. Cason, Mrs. T. A. Rawls, Mrs. F. C. Fisher, Mrs. F .T. Nable, Mrs. A. J. Adams, Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Mrs. H. Halld Zeder, Mrs. A. G. Evans, Mrs. Frank Williams, Mrs. Frank Dean, Mrs. W. A. Miller, Mrs. Roy Webb, Mrs. L. F. Ranson and Mrs. J. C. Keen.

Mrs. Horace Marshall and two children, accompanied by her uncle, Mr. Wallace Watson, of Clarksville, Tenn., arrived Thursday for a visit with the family of her brother, Dr. Roy Webb. Mr. Watson is the father of Clayburn Watson, who is one of our prominent farmers.

The Bridge Club was entertained Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Bradshaw at the Kentucky House. Punch and candy were served throughout the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. H. Halld Zeder, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Humphries and Mrs. Carl Breer of Detroit.

The Civitan Club held its regular meeting Friday evening at the Arvilla Tea Room and held their annual election of officers. Dr. J. L. Love was chosen president, Mr. Frank Swanson, vice president, and Harold Bache, secretary. It was voted to pay the secretary for his services.

Miss Marion Brown who attends the National Park Seminary at Washington, is spending her Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown at Boca Ratone Beach.

J. S. Sunday has been serving on the jury at West Palm Beach during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doepke of Milwaukee, who are spending the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla., were the pleasant callers of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Quayle, Wednesday.

W. M. Buck, who has been managing the Seacrest Hotel at Delray Beach, left Thursday morning with his family for his home in Port Dover, Ont. The Seacrest has had a most wonderful season under his management. However, the season has not closed as E. V. Malone will assume the management and the hotel will remain open throughout the summer. Many of the guests are still at the hotel and more are arriving daily.

John Wilder of Evanston, Ill., has returned to his home after having spent a week with his wife and son at the Seacrest Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Leet have returned to their home in Pennsylvania after a season at the Seacrest.

Mrs. J. J. Schabinger who has suffered since before Christmas from a fall has gone to the Washington Sanitorium at Washington.

Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Rice left for their home in Terre Haute, Ind., after a short visit with their sister, Mrs. Frank Dean.

Miss Elizabeth Nash has returned to her home in Washington after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Schabinger.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bell left by motor car last week for their home in New Jersey.

J. A. Zeder and Paul Zackelmeyer of Bay City, Mich., have returned from a visit at Nassau.

Mrs. Frank Brown entertained the Social Club at her home on Boynton avenue Tuesday afternoon. There were four tables of five hundred. At the close of the game delicious refreshments were served which consisted of salad, sandwiches, coffee, strawberry cream and cake were served. The guests were Mrs. Paul Dawson, Mrs. Ellingsworth, Mrs. J. H. Hedden, Mrs. W. N. Johnson, Mrs. Nagle, Mrs. William Whitfield, Mrs. A. D. Burke, Mrs. B. F. Sundy, Mrs. I. J. Hanson, Mrs. Van Deventer, Mrs. E. H. Scott, Mrs. M. G. Taylor, Mrs. Edward Page, Mrs. M. D. Morris and Mrs. B. V. Malone.

Among those shopping in West Palm Beach Tuesday afternoon were Mrs. A. G. Evans, Miss Olivia Evans, Mrs. J. R. Cason, Jr., the Misses Joanna Cason and Daisy Sundy, Mrs. H. Halld Zeder, Mrs. A. J. Zeder, Mrs. Carl Dreer, Mrs. Barrs and daughter, Isabel and Mr. F. J. Schrader.

Mrs. L. L. Smith gave a bridge tea at her home on Delray Beach Tuesday afternoon. Her guests were Mrs. Charles Lohrman, Mrs. Robert Fryer, Mrs. Howard Cherry, Mrs. Charles Adams, and Miss Clemens.

Miss Mary Northup of Detroit, is a guest at the Detroit cottage. Her uncle, David Austin of Detroit, is at the Arvilla Annex.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Lathrop and Mrs. James Smith of Birmingham, Ala., arrived a few days ago as guests of Mrs. Lathrop's sister, Mrs. W. M. Buck of the Seacrest, and left with the Bucks Thursday morning for Port Dover, Canada.

R. C. Zantzinger arrived at the Seacrest this week to accompany his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Zantzinger, to their home in Washington. They left by car Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Zantzinger have spent the winter at the Seacrest.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. James of Peekskill, N. Y., have left for their home, after a season at the Seacrest.

Mrs. Guss Dodd has returned to her home in Atlanta, Ga.

Recent arrivals at the Seacrest are Miss Mary Mitchell, Canton, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Adele, Leesburg, A. C. Barnes, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Fla.; Donald B. Fisher, New York; Charles Luther, Beaufort, S. C.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hollingsworth, Augusta, Ga.; W. S. Barker, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Barker, jr., Louisville, Ky.; Mrs. Duer and Mrs. Martin, Washington, D. C.; L. Vandergraft and two sons, Peter and Edward, Grand Rapids, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Clay Snead, Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. McNeal and Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Starr, Joplin, Mo.

A. G. Evans has returned from Roanoke, Vt., where he visited his mother, who is in a sanitarium there.

Mrs. M. Anderson of Toronto, Canada, returned home Friday, after a visit to her brother, Mr. Fred Cramp. She accompanied the body of Mrs. John Cramp, who was killed by a car Monday evening.

H. D. Barwick has been called home on account of the serious condition of his wife.

J. F. Comer of Alexander City, Ala., has been a guest of his sister, Mrs. W. M. Buck, at the Seacrest Hotel.

The Eta Beta Pi Club was entertained by Miss Evelyn Moore at the home of Mrs. A. G. Evans, on Dade street, Monday evening. After an evening of games, a delightful lunch was served, which consisted of frozen fruit salad, whipped cream, coffee, saltines and nuts. Those present were Misses Mae and Florence Cramp, Misses Addie and Sadie Sundy, Misses Sadie and Amanda Godbold, Miss Lillian Barwick, Miss Ruth Jennings and Miss Olivia Evans.

Miss Sadie Sundy is spending the week-end with friends in Fort Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lohrman and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cherry returned Thursday from Key West.

A farewell surprise party was given to Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Davis at their home at Delray Beach, Friday evening. They will move to their new home on Swinton in a very short while. The guests served the refreshments, which consisted of punch, sandwiches and cake. The evening was spent playing bridge. Those in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lohrman, Mr. and Mrs. William Needham, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. McLaren, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fryer and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harrison.

Mrs. Bertha Oeser, who has been at the home of Mrs. A. G. Evans for the season, left Friday for her home in Terre Haute, Ind. This is Mrs. Oeser's fifth season in Delray.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ryan of Miami, spent Friday with Mrs. Frank Brown.

RECENT BRIDE OF NEW SMYRNA

Mrs. Harry Z. Silsby, of New Smyrna, charming bride of a week ago last Wednesday, who was Miss Ellen Teats. The wedding was a social event of the season.—Photograph by Van de Sande.

OKEECHOBEE

MR. and Mrs. C. L. Nichols and daughter, Miss Jean Nichols of Amherst, N. H., spent several days in Okeechobee this week.

W. H. Shafer, realty man with offices in Wheeling, W. Va., and Sebring, stopped in Okeechobee for a short stay Sunday.

S. L. Clements was in Miami Sunday.

Miss Louise Driggs left Tuesday for a visit with relatives in Orlando.

Mrs. John R. Robinson has come from West Palm Beach.

Mrs. G. A. Rogers entertained the members of the Woman's Club at her residence on Osceola street Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Sullivan of Detroit, are spending the week in Okeechobee.

Chris Dorn of Utica, N. Y., with Mr. and Mrs. L. Mahoney of Chicago, are guests at the Harding Hotel.

Mrs. E. C. Wells and Miss Thelma Wells, of Arcadia; Miss Mary E. Bouis and C. S. Bouis of Baltimore, were among the numerous visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Ferguson of Miami, were here a few days last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Saunders came up from Miami recently.

Mrs. John Robins has gone to West Palm Beach to visit her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Armour Kirby were in West Palm Beach for the week-end. They were accompanied by Ed Sheehan.

Mrs. A. D. Ramis of Arcadia, returned to her home Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Skipper and two children of Bartow, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

George Hyde had the pleasure of a visit from his father, who passed through Okeechobee Tuesday, on the way to Tampa.

Charles L. Henck spent several days this week in Miami and West Palm Beach.

Mrs. Clint A. Steed has gone to Tennessee, having been called there by the death of her sister.

Mrs. L. L. Wingate has returned from south Georgia, where she has been at the bedside of her father.

Enoch Alderman spent Sunday with his family in Palatka. He expects to move his family to Okeechobee when the school term expires.

R. G. Gillette went to Jacksonville Friday to attend the burial of his sister.

W. H. Wingate and family of Orlando, spent Sunday here at the home of his brother, L. L. Wingate.

J. E. Price of the Riverside Sales Company, is in Jacksonville on business for a few days.

Philip Peterson came from West Palm Beach to spend Sunday with home folks and friends here.

Miss Mary Charles Clements and Frank Mosely were married Thursday evening at the home of the bride in this city. Rev. E. M. C. Dunklin was the officiating minister. The bridegroom is connected with the Jefferson Construction Company here.

Mrs. W. W. Potter and Mrs. L. L. Wingate entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Potter.

FELLSMERE

MR. and Mrs. Curtiss Johnston of Iowa, who have enjoyed the winter in their pleasant Southern home here will start for their home in the North, soon.

A recent event of much interest was a birthday party at the home of Mrs. R. L. Kinney honoring her little daughter, Gail. Twenty-six children were present and a number of friends. The occasion was a very happy one. Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served and pretty favors presented to the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Tritt of Pennington Gap, Va., have moved here.

The visitors from Maine and those who are residents of Fellsmere had a happy gathering on Tuesday in the library. Thirty-one were present. After a dinner which all enjoyed several readings were given by Mrs. George King and Mrs. L. Grow, and old fashioned songs were sung with accompaniment by Mrs. Roy L. Kinney.

Mrs. Addie Nevills and son, Frederick, left on Wednesday night for their home in Portland, Me., sailing from Jacksonville to Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Anderson left Thursday morning for their home in Paris, Maine.

H. H. Bryant and M. A. Carrier visited Eustis recently on business.

Mrs. Julia Todd of Kansas City, Mo., is the guest of friends at the Carrier Hotel.

Mrs. L. H. Shomber and Miss Anna Bittner went Tuesday morning to St. Augustine.

Mrs. Henry Whipple and daughter, Miss Kathryne have returned from Palm Beach where they spent several months.

ARCH CREEK

ROY DEANS left for his home in Chicago last Wednesday. He has been spending the winter with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Deans, on East Dixie.

Mrs. Sarah Brion, who has spent the past four months with her son, William P. Brion and wife, left by boat last Sunday for Buffalo, N. Y., to visit a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Heslin, who have been spending the winter here, will leave Tuesday for their summer home at Syracuse, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Mann are the proud parents of a young daughter.

Miss Pansy Norton of Miami gave an interesting talk to the school children Wednesday on "Home Projects."

The Rev. W. L. Crist carried away a goodly number of prizes from the Dade County Fair. He entered 18 of his ducks and every one won a ribbon, 12 firsts and six seconds.

The operetta, "The Pennant," given by the Lemon City High School was well attended and greatly enjoyed. The Arch Creek school received more than $38 as its share of the proceeds.

The family of T. J. McCain moved to Dania on Monday, Mr. McCain having been appointed station agent of the F. E. C. railroad at Dania.

The Arch Creek Parent-Teachers' Association will meet Wednesday afternoon, April 1, in the school auditorium. Mrs. Partee's room will furnish the program, beginning promptly at 2 o'clock.

A delegate to represent the Arch Creek school at the Florida State Parent-Teachers' Association to be held at Heustis, April 6, 7, 8, will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kackley have moved from Arch Creek to Miami. Mrs. Kackley is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Baile.

The Bertha-Marie Club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Charles Turner. The day was spent in sewing. Mrs. Turner served an excellent dinner. Those present were: Mrs. Ed. Personius, Mrs. Freeman Snow, Mrs. Charles Turner, Mrs. William P. Brion, Mrs. Sarah Brion, Mrs. S. A. Potter and daughter, Phyllis, Mrs. C. O. Woods and daughter, Hazel, Mrs. Asa Crippen, Mrs. F. Hawkins, Mrs. W. O. Gepfert, Miss Bessie McDonald, Miss Holliday and Miss Cecilia Turner.

A number of prizes were won by the Arch Creek School Sewing Club at the Dade County Fair. The club took third prize in the county for club work. Miss Anna Sturdevant won first prize on dresser scarf, Miss Cecilia Turner, first on pillow cases, Miss Floretta Wagner, second on kimona, Miss Vivian Yates, third on table runner.

The Pollyanna Sunday School Class, taught by Mrs. J. E. Henshaw, will give an April Fool party in the K. of P. Hall Monday evening, March 30.

L. B. Noble and family have moved to Miami.

The enrollment of the Arch Creek schools over last year is 42 per cent.

STUART

MRS. J. B. GRISWOLD and son, Jack, have gone to Miami and Hollywood, where they will visit before returning to their home in Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. George C. Wilson of Spring Lake, N. J., were in Stuart this week visiting their many friends.

Jack McDonald spent Sunday in Haines City.

The card party given at the Yacht Club Wednesday evening by Mrs. Harry Veghte and Mrs. Herbert Heroy for the benefit of the Boy Scouts netted $89. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Argler, Mrs. Belle Sparks and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Greenlees of Tropical Farms spent Wednesday in Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lapetina of New York, who have been guests at the El Reina Hotel, went to Miami and Hollywood this week with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Griswold.

Howell Gano returned to Stuart Wednesday evening after an extended trip to Cincinnati and Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Young of Salino and their daughter, Mrs. William Dinkert, and her two little daughters of Minneapolis, Minn., were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Burrell and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mapp.

Mr. and Mrs. George Trent left for their home at Asbury Park, N. J., Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Trent spent the winter season at the Coventry Apartments. They have been coming to Stuart for a number of years.

Mrs. John Coventry and Mrs. Earl Coventry entertained three tables at a bridge luncheon Monday. The guests were Miss Kate Sherwood, Mrs. Fred Schofield, Mrs. Daniel Orr, Mrs. Herbert Heroy, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. Harry Veghte, Mrs. William Trent, Mrs. E. Svilokous, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. W. H. Aspenwall and Miss Merrizen. Favors were awarded to Mrs. Schofield and Mrs. Heroy.

Henry Smith of Fort Myers is visiting his cousin, Mrs. C. E. Sharon.

LAKE WORTH

THE Royal Neighbors of America entertained the Modern Woodmen at the Odd Fellow's hall Tuesday evening. An interesting program was given. Mrs. F. M. Burbach gave two readings, Mrs. McCarl rendered musical selections, Eugene McCarl sang two solos and William Shams closed the program with an interesting talk.

The Tourist Club meeting scheduled for Wednesday night in the auditorium has been postponed on account of the illness of Mrs. Phil Miller, who was to have given a vaudeville program.

George Parks and his daughter, Mrs. Leone Ballachey, of Bradford, Ontario, who have been in Lake Worth the past month, have left for their Canadian home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. McCoy and nephew, Harold Becktol, are leaving tomorrow by motor car for a trip through the state and then to their home in Colgate, Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Bailey, who recently bought a lot on South F street near Tenth and built a pretty bungalow, will leave in a few days for their home in White Plains, Ky.

George A. McLean left Lake Worth Wednesday for Columbus, Ohio, to attend the Ohio State University. Mr. and Mrs. McLean and their daughter will remain in Lake Worth a few weeks longer. William McLean, who is connected with Carr & McPadden, engineers, will remain here permanently.

Alfred Paquin left Friday to motor to Waltham, Mass. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Manchester and Miss Manchester who are returning to their home in Newton, Mass. Miss Manchester has been one of the telephone operators during her stay this winter in Lake Worth.

The Woman's Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church met Thursday with Mrs. H. A. Stimson at her home on Lake avenue and B street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gidden, who have been spending the winter in Melbourne, motored to Lake Worth last week. They are here on business and may stay in town another week.

Mr. and Mrs. Meyerhoff of Montana, winter visitors here, and Mrs. Alice Cruzan Kimball returned Monday from a motor trip through the state. They visited on the West Coast, staying some time in St. Petersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Berlitten McClellan and Leslie Newell of Tampa are visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Haynes.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Hawkins and three sons have arrived from Kansas City to make their permanent home in Lake Worth. Mrs. Hawkins is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wheeler of Thirteenth avenue and Lakeside drive.

Mrs. L. Munch, an all-winter guest of the Florida Hotel, has left for her home in Hull, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Menoher and daughter, Betty Jane, motored to Miami Sunday. They were accompanied on their return by Mrs. Menoher's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Weeks, who left Wednesday by train for their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Hofste of Speedway Overlook, Cleveland, who are making a motor trip through Florida, have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Robinson of M street and First avenue.

Thomas Joyce left today for Cheyenne, Wyo., where he will spend the summer, returning here to remain permanently next winter. Mrs. Joyce and son, Elmer, will stay in Lake Worth at their home on North L street.

A. Kline of New York, who spent the season at the Del Camp Hotel, left to spend the summer in the North. He expects to return and make his home here.

Miss Elizabeth Purdy of Ithaca, N. Y., arrived recently to visit her grandfather, George D. Curtis of Rochester, N. Y., who has a winter home on North K street.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. York of Grand Rapids, Mich., are leaving shortly for their home after spending the season in Lake Worth.

Mrs. Francis Campbell and Master Colin Campbell will leave Saturday for their home in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Richardson, who have spent the winter here, have returned to their home in Gibbon, Neb.

P. O. Gorder, formerly of Lake Worth, has opened an advertising agency in West Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thomas of A street have as their guest, Mr. Calvin May of Toledo, Ohio. They motored to Miami Wednesday to spend the day.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hunt of Meriden, Conn., have gone to their Northern home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Montgomery of Nicholasville, Ky., left Wednesday for their home. They have been coming to Lake Worth for seven years.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Heath leave this week for their home in Saugatuck, Mich. They will return next winter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fairgraves of Erie, Pa., who spent the winter at the Del Camp Hotel, left Monday for the North. Frank Fairgraves, their son, came to Lake Worth a short time ago to motor back with them.

MIMS

MRS. OLIVER SMOAK returned Saturday to her home in Pompano after a three weeks' visit with her sister, Mrs. J. G. Cooke and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Still, sr., and their son, William Still, jr., left Tuesday for their home in Champaign, Ill., and later Mr. Still, jr., will join his wife in Detroit, Mich.

Mrs. S. O. Rigg and daughter, Mrs. O. Smoak, were shopping in Titusville Thursday.

Mrs. Nina O. Stanley and Mrs. C. J. Taylor were visitors in Titusville Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. P. W. Roberts was a recent visitor with her sister, Mrs. J. C. Shell, in Titusville.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunn and children were in Lyratta Friday.

Ralph Ellis is clerking in Simmons' store.

Mrs. D. McClean and son, Cameron, were here Friday evening.

S. P. Grube, of Springfield, Ohio who recently purchased a homesite from F. W. Morrell, has built a two-story house and is located here permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Bevil and Miss Rhoda Bennett were visiting in Titusville Saturday evening.

Lyman Harrell, of LaGrange, was here Sunday.

Ralph Shaw, of Oak Hill, spent Sunday here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Burreson and daughter were in Titusville Saturday evening.

With the approach of Easter egg hunts are being planned for the children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Worthington of Wilson, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Kyzer.

Miss Eva Kyzer returned to her studies at the Women's College at Tallahassee after a week's visit here with her father, P. L. Kyzer and her sister.

P. T. Stanley and family were visitors in Titusville Saturday.

Millard Cotton of New York, who has been at Dew Drop Inn all winter has gone to Wabasso for a few weeks before returning home.

C. A. Terwillinger of Titusville and St. Augustine was a business visitor here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wissinger of Southmere were here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patchin of the Southmere road were transacting business here Saturday.

W. A. Green was a business visitor in Titusville Monday.

Mrs. J. G. Cooke, sr., of W. Va., arrived Saturday to visit her son, J. G. Cooke, jr., and family.

Miss Lillie Mae Kyzer was shopping in Titusville Saturday.

Mrs. Alice Shelbourne, county school superintendent, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Brehant of Burkholm were visitors here Tuesday.

Mrs. Hugh Newman and four children left Wednesday for Jacksonville to join Mr. Newman, who has located there.

Mrs. R. R. Chandoin and son, Howard, of La Grange were visitors here Tuesday.

Prof. J. C. Weaver has been ill several days recently, but is now able to attend to his school duties.

The Rev. T. A. Conway of Titusville, the former Baptist pastor here, and his daughter, Miss Virginia, were visitors here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Burreson and daughter, Miss Zinta, went to Titusville Beach and Playa Linda Sunday and enjoyed a dip in the surf.

J. J. Parrish of Titusville was a business visitor here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Dunn visited Mrs. Dunn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Taylor in Shiloh last Friday.

Messrs. Henry Bailey and P. S. Kyzer were transacting business in Titusville Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Z. Kyzer and daughter, Miss Lillie Kyzer, Mrs. Selina Roberts and daughter, Mrs. Lillian R. Britton, attended the revival at the Methodist Church in Titusville Tuesday. The evangelist is the Rev. J. J. Whitworth of the Palatka district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Root of Aurantia were all day visitors of Mrs. A. A. Dunn Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Flood have returned to their home in Daytona after a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. John R. Andrews.

Charles Simmons of Oak Hill was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. Magoon of Scottsmore was transacting business here Tuesday.

Mrs. Selima Roberts was shopping in Titusville Monday.

W. T. Wood of New York, who has been here all winter, left Monday for Sebastian where his family is now located for a few weeks.

J. J. Taylor is home again after a month spent at Goulds.

Ed Peacock is visiting his parents after a tour about the state all winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Kaiser have moved to the home of Mrs. Kaiser's sister, Mrs. W. A. Sykes.

E. C. Langston and his brother, Doctor Langston of Oklahoma were visitors here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Lewis and child of Canton, O., were here Saturday while on their way home from a several months stay in Miami. Mr. Lewis spent the winter here six years ago.

Mrs. R. W. Windham is again at her home on the Southmere road, after a lengthy visit with her daughter, Miss Violet in West Palm Beach.

School Commissioner W. F. Allen of Titusville, was a visitor here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Sharpe and children of Southmore were here Tuesday afternoon.

W. J. Folsom was transacting business in Titusville Monday.

John R. Andrews and W. J. Folsom were doing court duty in Titusville last week.

Dr. D. L. Yingling of Johnstown, Pa., is visiting his sister Mrs. J. G. Wissinger for a few weeks and while here hopes to enjoy some of the splendid fishing in the St. Johns and Indian rivers. Dr. Yingling has been spending the winter at Palm Beach and Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam F. Flood of Daytona, arrived Friday to visit Mr. and Mrs. John R. Andrews and three little grandchildren who, with their mother, Mrs. Alma Flood, has been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrews for several months.

Mr. and Miss Davidson of Scottsmore, were pleasant visitors at the Roberts home Thursday.

Mrs. J. Z. Kyzer and daughter, Mrs. C. W. Nicholson and little son, Wallace, returned Friday from a pleasant visit with Mrs. Nicholson's uncle and aunt in Osteen. They spent one day in Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Folsom and four children and Mr. Folsom's brother, Mr. Osban Folsom were recent visitors in Sebastian with relatives. Mr. Osban Folsom remained at Sebastian for a few weeks.

Mr. A. Andre is planning to move his residence from the old Dixie Highway to the new Dixie Highway, a distance of one-fifth of a mile.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Roberts and children and Mr. J. Z. Kyzer visited Playa Linda Beach Sunday.

John Pelham Andrews and a classmate from the Florida University at Gainesville left Saturday to return to school after a pleasant week's visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Andrews.

Miss Velma Tate and little brother, Lee of Titusville, visited their sister, Mrs. Higdon Bevil Saturday.

Mr. B. Davis was a visitor in Titusville Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wagor of Titusville were here Sunday.

Mr. W. Morris transacted business in Titusville Saturday.

The Wilson family enjoyed a fishing trip to the St. Johns river Thursday.

Mrs. Emma Carlile of La Grange was shopping here Thursday.

C. W. Nicholson was a business visitor in Titusville Saturday.

J. T. McGuire of Titusville was transacting business here Saturday.

John R. Andrews and W. J. Folsom are summoned on jury duty for Circuit Court this week.

RELATED TO FRANCIS SCOTT KEY

When the band plays "The Star Spangled Banner," no American feels a greater thrill of patriotism and pride than Mrs. Sallie Key Young Crowder (shown on the left in the above picture) for, in addition to being an American of the old stock, she is the great great niece of Francis Scott Key, who wrote the words to the national anthem. Mrs. Crowder, who lives in Richmond, Va., has spent the winter in Fort Lauderdale with her daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Preston Pancake, at 651 Lawrence street. Mrs. Pancake is shown on the right with her young son.

BOCA RATONE

MR. AND MRS. CLIFFORD POTter of Granville, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. Mary Norton and Mr. Worth Martindale. Mr. and Mrs. Potter have been spending the winter at Cocoa, Florida.

Mrs. Lafayette Cooke is spending a week with Mr. Cooke in Miami.

Miss Pauline Raulerson, president of the County Home Demonstration Club in Boca Ratone, and Miss Ivy Raulerson, secretary and treasurer, attended the special meeting of the County Home Demonstration Club in Lake Worth last Friday. At the special meeting it was decided by the county club to have a rally day program soon, and early in June to have a vacation camp on Delray Beach. Miss Ivy Raulerson made a report of the work of the Boca Ratone Sewing Club for the past year.

City Marshal Charles Brown is on duty this week in West Palm Beach.

Among visitors from Miami on Sunday were: Mrs. G. H. Grimm, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Pond and son, Mrs. Nellie Fox, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Wyman and O. K. Maranville.

Miss Marion Brown, a student in the National Park Seminary, Washington, D. C., who has been spending her pre-Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brown at Ridgecrest, has returned to Washington.

H. W. Lovejoy has purchased the Boca Ratone restaurant from Jack Drulman.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Gates and P. D. Kinney were in Palm Beach on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Nelson of Wavecrest were in Miami on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Eldridge, Mrs. C. C. Guy, and Stroud Eldridge were in Palm Beach on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Bell of Alburgh, Vt., have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Thomas for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor of Bassette, Mont., are spending the winter with Mrs. Carrie Gafford.

Mrs. Carrie Gafford and guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor and William Auth were in Miami and Hialeah on Wednesday.

William Auth and Mrs. Carrie Gafford have purchased the Australian Hotel at Deerfield and will at once remodel it into a modern rooming house.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wyman of Miami and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Miller of Nashville, Tenn., called in town Wednesday.

The Rev. Fountain of Delray was a visitor to Lake Worth and Palm Beach on Wednesday. Mr. Drulman, who has been conducting a restaurant in Boca Ratone during the winter, leaves Sunday for Tampa on the way to New Orleans.

W. O. Rhiem who has had the management of the Boca Ratone office of the South Florida Sales Company, left with his family for Bolton Landing, N. Y., Thursday.

MELBOURNE

MR. and Mrs. M. R. Callahan of Tampa are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Callahan, here for a week.

C. F. Beach of Goshen, Ind., is at the Brown House.

Fred Brown has gone to Tampa with Mrs. Fisher and Mrs. H. Pierce and daughter of Chicago.

Col. and Mrs. Frank Bills are motoring to Miami for the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Parker Nail as guests.

Mrs. W. H. Kempfer is visiting in Kissimmee this week.

Mrs. C. L. Talley has returned to Iola, Kas., after a 10 weeks' visit with her mother, Mrs. C. W. Ellis.

Miss Edith Valentine entertained the senior class of Melbourne High School at Melbourne Beach Casino in games, dancing, cards, this week. Pauline Callahan and Irene Valentine were guests.

Miss Adeline Glanz of Chicago is a house guest of Mrs. Al Vorkeller on Hatterman Point.

The Country Club's next regular card party will be on the afternoon of April 2 and all golfers and visiting friends are asked to enjoy the occasion.

Mrs. H. H. Lammers at her residence in Magnolia Park will entertain the Catholic women of Melbourne on Monday.

Mrs. G. G. Noonan, Mrs. Stella Tenney and Mrs. L. M. Rice are touring Florida.

Mrs. W. E. Hatterman of Chicago and daughters, Miss Lucile and Mrs. Alice, and her son, Arthur Hatterman, are the latest Chicago arrivals at Al Vorkeller's Hatterman Point.

Arthur Hatterman of Chicago is a Melbourne visitor.

TITUSVILLE

MR. and Mrs. W. C. Klingensmith have returned from Miami.

Titusville will be represented in Miami at the Grand Chapter, Order Eastern Star, when it convenes on Tuesday by the following members of Friendship Chapter No. 6. Mrs. L. R. Britton, grand treasurer; Mrs. C. J. Denham, who will be one of the soloist at the meeting; Mrs. L. R. Paxton, Mrs. Herbert Thompson, Mrs. F. C. Campbell, Mrs. L. Patrick, Mrs. Harry Jepson and Miss Eloise Coleman.

Messrs. George Brockett, Herbert Thompson, Frank Darden, J. E. Nobles, and E. J. Enright attended the D. O. K. K. ceremonial held in Jacksonville on Tuesday.

Mrs. Harry Wilson has returned from a delightful visit in Miami and Key West.

W. C. Prindle has returned to his home in Huntington, W. Va., after a visit here and other points on the East Coast.

Mrs. Charles Nelson, of Miami, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Bishop.

A. E. Fuller has returned from a trip to the West Coast.

Judge Richard Rollins, of West Palm Beach, spent a few days here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Brockett and Miss Zandie Stewart were Daytona visitors on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Searsell spent a part of this week in Jacksonville.

Attorney W. S. Collins, of Melbourne, attended court here this week.

Robert Moore, of Charleston, S. C., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. L. Patrick.

Mrs. Herman Shoup, Mrs. Kountz and Miss Lelia Koontz motored to Orlando Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards have returned to Baltimore, after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Holmes.

Dr. and Mrs. George Holmes, of Sharpes were visitors here this week.

Mrs. Dobbins, of Jacksonville, has returned home after a visit with Mrs. L. Conley.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Miegel, of Melbourne, Mrs. Ann Miegel and Miss Jane Parquett, of Augusta, Ga., were guests of relatives here over last week end.

Misses Mary and Sophia Winterhayer, W. T. Winterhayer and Mr. and Mrs. Cheek, of New Smyrna, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Mandaville on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Mandaville will leave Tuesday for Columbus, Ga., where they will attend an optical convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Parrish are leaving Tuesday for Tallahassee for a several months' stay.

Miss Ruth Draper, of New York city, is the guest of Mrs. F. Houston.

Mrs. Ward, of Lake Worth, is the guest of Mrs. J. W. Ward, in her home on First street.

FORT PIERCE

MISS LENA STUTBACH left several days ago for her home in Atlantic City, N. J., after spending several weeks here the guest of her sister, Mrs. Willis.

Edgar Worm of Punta Gorda, was a Fort Pierce visitor for a few days this week.

A. D. McMahon of Homestead, Pa., was a visitor here for several days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Leininger, accompanied by their daughter, Mary, were visitors in Palm Beach on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hale, Jr., Richard T. Hale and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Gillette of Nashville, Tenn., were visitors here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Winkle were visitors in Miami for a couple of days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kloeppel of Jacksonville, were visitors here for a few days this week.

Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Clarkson of Jacksonville, were visitors here Saturday.

Mrs. B. Arnold of Vero, was a visitor in this city Monday visiting her parents.

VERO

THE Needlecraft Club bestowed a real surprise Wednesday afternoon upon Mrs. W. C. Evans, inviting her to an afternoon tea at the home of Mrs. L. A. Moeller. Arriving there she found herself greeted as the guest of honor by a company of thirty friends. She was showered with many dainty, beautiful, and useful gifts. Sunshine and angel food cake and punch were served. Those present were Mrs. C. W. Evans, Mrs. L. A. Moeller, Mrs. J. G. Weaver, Mrs. D. F. Zigrang, Mrs. John Schlitt, Mrs. L. N. Dellerman, Mrs. F. W