Social News of Southeastern Florida

OKEECHOBEE

R. H. SINGLETARY returned Monday from Jacksonville where he had visited his brother, J. H. Singletary.

Fred W. Henck is expected to return this week from Chattanooga and will be connected with the real estate office here of the Charles L. Henck Company of Miami.

The number of the pupils in the Okeechobee High School has increased to so many that Miss Bennett was added to the faculty this week. The school building, erected last year, was thought to be amply large for three years to come, but is now crowded to capacity, having an enrollment of nearly 600. Four years ago the entire population of Okeechobee was only slightly greater than the present enrollement of the school.

Glenn and Milton Skipper of Miami were visitors in Okeechobee Monday. They are part owners of Okeechobee Gardens the 12,000-acre subdivision being marketed by Charles L. Henck Company, of Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Hough of West Palm Beach were in the city this week making arrangements to move to Okeechobee where Mr. Hough owns considerable property and who recently became president of the $100,000 corporation known as the Florida Land and Investment Company. This company is now remodeling the lower floor of the Hough building for an elaborate office.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. McCarthy and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Armstrong were visitors to Fort Pierce Sunday where they attended the dedication ceremonies of the Catholic Church.

Mayor Barrior of Harrisburgh, Pa., arrived in Okeechobee Tuesday to spend the winter. Mr. Barrior has wintered here before. He expressed himself as well pleased at the improvements made here since his last visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Durham and children and Mr. Watts and daughter of Atlanta were guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Culbreth this week. Mr. Watts was so well pleased with this city that he has returned to Atlanta to dispose of his holdings there and investing here.

Horace Watford of Madrid, Ala., arrived last week and is employed at N. C. Culbreth's filling station. He is a brother of Mrs. Culbreth.

F. M. Bradley drove over to Fort Pierce on Saturday.

Alice Potter was a Palm Beach visitor Wednesday.

J. E. Price spent Wednesday in West Palm Beach.

J. Mulberg expects to leave for his home in Key West this week end.

Mrs. Neville made a business trip to West Palm Beach on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. Denham Bird entertained the Card Club.

Among those who drove to Fort Pierce for the minstrel show on Tuesday evening were, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Scott, Mr and Mrs. R. H. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Barns, Mr. and Mrs W. R. Gary, Miss Hattie Palmer, Celeste Brantley, Miss Everton, Miss Minnie Burnett, Miss Iva Donelly, Mrs. Lilby Price, Capitola Prater, Miss Van Horne, S. C. Harpen, J. E. Price, Tom Pitts, Ellis Meserve, Jas. Hancock and Frank Bradley.

St. Petersburg visitors here over the week-end included S. C. Keith, S. I. Bigham and Mrs. Robert Vandercook.

Among the week-end visitors from Locoochee were R. G. Porter and A. M. Leach.

P. E. Ashbrook of Dade City spent Sunday in Okeechobee.

Mrs. Ina F. Cutter of Boston was a Sunday visitor here.

Sunday's list of visitors from Atlanta included A. S. Boyette, jr.

B. Seidlie of Baltimore was in town on Sunday.

H. E. Jernigan of Orlando was a business visitor here Monday.

Mrs. W. R. Gary returned home Sunday night after a visit with her mother, Mrs. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wingate, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gillette and Isalah Casey left Tuesday noon on a hunting trip. They expect to return some time today.

Mrs. Harry Lamb (nee Muriel V. Bras) gave a dinner last Sunday in honor of her mother-in-law's 69th birthday. Harry's mother arrived here from Clyde, Kans., last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Brandon of Fort Lauderdale, and formerly of Clyde, Kans., were among the guests. Mr. Brandon left for home on Monday, but Mrs. Brandon will spend the week here.

D. R. McNeill was confined to his home the fore part of the week with a cold.

R. P. Bush of Jacksonville was in town Sunday.

Quincy Peacock of Jacksonville spent Sunday and Monday here on business.

Rev. E. L. Shuler and family will move into their new home in DeBerry Gardens next week.

Mrs. John Barber is ill.

Mrs. Carl Blount is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Platt, accompanied by Shirley Daughtry, motored to Sebring over the week-end.

Claude Simmons' father and brother Carl were injured in an automobile accident near Sarasota on Sunday. Both are progressing favorably.

Carl Blount returned Wednesday from a business trip to Tampa.

Miss Lilby Price, Iva Donnelly, Alise Potter, J. E. Price and F. M. Bradley motored to Palm Beach on Sunday.

E. O. Douglas of Sebring passed through here Sunday on his way home.

T. W. Connelly, jr., was in West Palm Beach on business Tuesday.

C. D. (Chief) Schenck, who was operated on for appendicitis in Sanford last Friday night, is recovering rapidly.

H. H. Land of St. Louis was a business visitor here Monday.

Grand Rapids visitors on Monday included John A. Higgins and Fred A. Maynard.

H. H. Roulerson and H. L. Spicer of New Smyrna were Okeechobee visitors Monday.

E. Earl Wright and Frank R. Wright of Philadelphia spent Tuesday here.

Among the Tampa visitors on Tuesday were Richard Harte, H. Barbour and A. B. McCord.

G. B. Sawyers and H. C. Wellborn of Jacksonville were here on business Wednesday.

W. J. Galbraith of Fort Pierce drove over here on Wednesday.

Melvin L. Hayes and Bertie Carlton of Fort Pierce were married in the judge's chambers Saturday by Judge C. C. Durrance.

The Ladie's Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church, under the direction of Mrs. M. B. McNeff, held a food sale in the Hough building Saturday, which netted the society a neat sum.

L. A. Turner was a visitor to St. Petersburg Sunday and Monday.

Jules Burgiere of West Palm Beach, was here Friday and Saturday in connection with the sale recently of 16,000 acres of land to New York capitalists.

W. R. Vosburgh, of Tampa, state hotel inspector, spent several days here this week, and expressed himself as pleasd with the sanitary condition of hotels and restaurants in Okeechobee.

Busses on cross-state road No. 8 resumed service Monday between Miami and West Coast cities.

Attorney Giblin is a ne warrival in Okeechobee and has established an office in the Hough building.

Notwithstanding a heavy demand for fish from the local market from cities north, the catches have been exceedingly small lately. In fact since the October flood waters in Lake Okeechobee the hauls of fish have been below normal.

Rev. J. E. Callaway who is conducting evangelistic services here twice daily at the First Baptist Church is meeting with considerable success.

Mr. Ellis and Mr. Seymour, two salesmen of the local office of the Charles L. Henck Company, are touring the West Coast this week in the interest of Okeechobee Gardens subdivision.

LAKE WORTH COUPLE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lloyd, of Lake Worth, photographed as they celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. They came to Lake Worth January 21, 1924, from Millville, N. J. Mrs. Lloyd is wearing her wedding dress. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd and the two Misses Lloyd gave a reception to their friends.

A clipping from a newspaper, dated January 21, 1875, Beverly, N. J., said: "A blooming bride named Mary E. Muffett has been married today in a dress consisting of a buff colored silk, the materials of which were brought from Canton, China, and then taken to England during the American Revolution by Roger Kean, a prominent merchant of that day, and great, great grandfather to the bride. She is the sixth bride married in this dress during five generations, three in England and three in this country."

DEERFIELD

CHARLES LA BELLA is stopping at his home at Deerfield Beach.

John Newton has gone to Burnell, Fla., on a business trip.

Oliver Butler has installed a radio in his new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Evans, Mrs. Emma Crumb and Fred S. Titus of Norwich, N. Y., are spending the winter in Deerfield.

The Rev. R. P. Jackson has moved his family to Bunnell, Fla., wheer he will open a loan office.

Mrs. Harley Gates and son, Buddie, of Boca Ratone was in Deerfield Wednesday calling on old friends.

Herbert Theus of Ludowici, Ga., is in Deerfield and plans to make this his home.

Miss Bessie Liddy of West Palm Beach, was a Sunday guest of Mrs. L. V. Waldron.

MIMS

NEW pupils registered in the Grammar School the last week are Evangeline Woods, Alice Stanley and Merle Powers and Edith Kirkpatrick.

Mrs. W. F. Brannan and Mrs. A. J. Kennedy and little daughter, Cornelia, all of Cocoa, motored here Saturday and spent the day with Mrs. Selina Roberts and Mrs. Lillian R. Britton, both ladies were former residents here.

The quartette from the Memorial College for colored people at Live Oak gave a splendid concert Sunday evening at the St. James Colored Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hermingham motored to Cocoa and Rockledge Sunday afternoon.

Wandell Brannen of Cocoa spent Saturday with Keightley Nicholson.

Maurice Weinberg of Cocoa was a business visitor here Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Cooke and baby and mother, Mrs. S. O. Rigg, went to New Smyrna Sunday to visit their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. George Cooke and all went to Coronado Beach for the afternoon and evening.

D. I. Coggin and nephew, Louis Coggin of Cocoa were visitors here Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. DeWitt Taylor of Shiloh were visitors here Monday.

The many friends here of Ed. Pattillo of Shiloh, will regret to hear of his death at his home last Tuesday. The interment took place Wednesday afternoon at the Hawks Park cemetery.

Mrs. E. C. Langston and daughter, Miss Lucille and aunt, Mrs. Kate George, of Titusville, spent Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Lillian R. Britton.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rose and two children spent Wednesday in Cocoa. Mr. Rose going down for medical treatment from Dr. W. L. Hughlett.

Mrs. S. O. Rigg left Thursday to spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Oliver Smoak at Pompano.

Mrs. Louis Prothman and children were in Titusville Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Burreson and daughter, Miss Zinta were shopping in Titusville Saturday.

Juanita Brannan of Cocoa spent Saturday with Virginia Green.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McGuire of Titusville were visiting their mother, Mrs. Cora Nolle Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sands and children of Orlando visited Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Draa Sunday.

Mrs. Lillian R. Britton, grand treasurer of the Grand Chapter of Florida O. E. S., returned Tuesday from a few days visit in St. Augustine with Mr. and Mrs. E. McKeever, and while there attended the school of instruction and official meeting of Mrs. Claudia Christian, grand matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

A. W. Donaldson and family of Southmere are enjoying a visit from Mr. Donaldson's parents from Meadville, Pa.

W. J. Folsom and family motored to Sebastian last Sunday and spent the day with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Burreson and Mrs. Lillian R. Britton attended the Eastern Star meeting in Titusville Tuesday evening.

Mrs. O. R. Morey entertained a number of the little children Tuesday afternoon at a birthday party for her two little ones. The little people had a fine time and enjoyed the treat of ice cream and cake.

DELRAY

THE Bridge Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Zedar on Swinton avenue last Saturday evening. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Johnston, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Cason, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. H. Haild Zeder and Mrs. Max Ruhrmund, of Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bailey and son, Armstead Mitchell, are occupying the York cottage at Delray Beach for the winter. Mr. Bailey intends to enter the real estate business here and will build a home in the near future.

A most excellent musical program was given at the First Baptist Sunday morning. Those assisting were: Mrs. Glenn Sundy, Miss Carrie Johnson, Mrs. Miles and Mrs. Eugene Curry, Mrs. W. O. Jelks, was the accompanist.

Mrs. E. T. Page entertained the children with her delightful stories Friday afternoon at the Sunshine School. Mrs. Kenneth Wood will entertain them next Friday afternoon.

Miss Lupton of the Sunshine School has at last secured her dancing teacher who came down last Saturday for the first lessons.

C. H. Diggans has returned from a business trip to Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Alvin Ball, jr., have moved into their attractive new bungalow in Las Palmas.

A. W. Daugherty of Macon, who has been a guest of the family of Mr. J. C. Keen, left Saturday for Miami.

Mrs. C. D. Bailey and Miss Anna Meeks of Clarksville, Tenn., who are spending the season in West Palm Beach spent Saturday with Miss Carrie Johnson.

The Civitan Club held its regular weekly meeting at the Seacrest Hotel at Delray Beach Friday evening.

PRINCETON

R. S. CREWS has his father from north Florida visiting him.

Mrs. Frank McStay visited Mrs. W. T. McVicker and Mrs. Jim Marable at the El Patio Apartment in Homestead Tuesday.

Mrs. A. S. Chalker has been with her brother's wife, Mrs. King, who continues quite ill in Perrine.

Mrs. J. L. Murray motored to Homestead Tuesday morning.

Miss Mildred Graham, daughter of C. R. Graham, had the misfortune to fall and break her arm several days ago.

R. V. Overstreet and sons, have returned from a summer spent in their Virginia home, to make preparations for opening up their canning factory.

Lawrence C. Smith has been confined to his home for several days with a severe cold.

The Woman's Club met on Tuesday at the regular meeting with the following members present, Mrs. Charles Behrens, Mrs. L. C. Smith, Mrs. John L. Murray, Mrs. E. J. Dyal, Mrs. J. G. McSweeney and Mrs. A. W. McVicker.

Mrs. E. J. Dyal entertained the Young People's Society of the Methodist Sunday School at a business meeting Tuesday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet with Mrs. Carlton Marsh at the hotel on Tuesday.

A number from here have been attending the revival services at the Perrine Methodist Church, being conducted by the Rev. T. W. and J. D. Whitworth for the past two weeks.

Franklin Cash who is working in Miami, visited his father Tuesday.

The Drake Lumber Company has sold its old mill property to the McGahey Construction Company, and they expect to start to work on making a rock quarry within a month or two.

J. H. Young has recently sold his property south of town.

John T. Shelton has come down from New York to improve his property here, he will build several bungalows and other improvements. Mr. Shelton is well known in this community where he served as station agent at both Naranja and Princeton.

Mr. McClintoch and family of Miami visited Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cumming last week.

KEY WEST

MR. AND MRS. J. E. SHROUDS, of 317 Fleming street, are entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rodgers, of Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Bostock, of Philadelphia, are here on a short visit. Mr. Bostock is the president of the Gas Service Company of Key West.

Mrs. Paul Demeritt, of 316 Fleming street, entertained friends at a reception on Tuesday afternoon and evening. An informal entertainment was given during the affair.

J. Frank Roberts, of 526 William street, has returned from a stort stay in Miami.

Mrs. William V. Millington, of 916 Elizabeth street, is in Tampa visiting relatives.

George A. T. Roberts, of 313 William street, who had been in Miami, returned Monday.

Miss Euphemia Knowles, after a two weeks' visit here with relatives, has returned to West Palm Beach.

Mrs. Bert Gagnon, of Lakeland, Fla., is visiting friends here.

Mrs. M. A. Albury and children returned to Miami Tuesday, following a visit here.

The Woman's guild of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will hold a meeting Monday afternoon.

The Twelve Pal Club, at its last meeting, was entertained by the Misses Florence and Agnes Walker.

Troop 5, Boy Scouts of America, will hold a meeting next Wednesday, at which arrangements for several proposed events will be discussed.

Norman E. Thompson, who had been visiting relatives here, has returned to his home in West Palm Beach.

Angel Rios, president of the Rios Fish Company, has returned from a business visit to Havana.

H. Markovitz, of 919 Duval street, returned Thursday from Miami.

T. Jenkins Curry, of Key Largo and Miami, was here visiting his father, Adolphus Curry, this week.

Carl B. Aubuchon is on a business visit in Ft. Pierce.

Miss Anna Knowles left on Monday for Miami to spend two weeks with relatives in that city.

C. E. Camus and daughter Doris, of 617 Ashe street, returned from Havana this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Higgs, of 324 Elizabeth street, who have been in Texas the last 10 months, will soon return.

Harold Sawyer, of Miami, is here on a visit to relatives and friends.

Joseph Porter Mountjoy, who had been visiting in New York for two weeks, has returned.

Philip Russell, after a short stay here with relatives, has returned to Miami.

M. W. Thompson is back from a short visit to New York.

Mrs. M. E. Johnson, who had been visiting in New York, has returned.

Mrs. T. J. Ryan, who had been here on a week's visit, went back to Miami Tuesday.

Rudolph B. Johnson, following an extended stay here with relatives, has returned to his home in Tampa.

J. E. Carroll, who had been sojourning here a few days, left for Miami Monday.

GOULDS

MR. and Mrs. Robert Abercrombie of Pittsburgh, Pa., have arrived and are visiting W. H. Owens, brother of Mrs. Abercrombie.

Emil Gollatscheck and son, Joseph, are here for a short business visit. Mr. Gollatscheck owns considerable property in the business section and a grove and dwelling north of town on the Ingraham Highway.

E. R. Reed of Des Moines, Ia., is in town and is the guest of Mrs. D. V. Lewis while here.

Barney Barnett arrived this morning to take charge of the association packing house for the coming season.

Numbers of winter residents are arriving. Among the former residents noted are: Mr. and Mrs. Bob Haislip, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nappy, Mr. and Mrs. Grady Faulkner and little son, R. H. Mills, Tom Torbert, Oliver Williams and Daniel Lewis.

FLORIDA CITY

MRS. B. H. COLLIER arrived Tuesday by the way of Key West and Galveston, Texas, from Oklahoma and Texas, where she has been spending several months on account of ill health. Mrs. Collier was accompanied by Mr. Collier who returned some time ago. Mrs. Collier has returned much improved in health.

The Florida City Ladies' Aid Society will give a supper at the lecture rooms of the Community Church Thursday night, January 29, the proceeds of which will go to swell the church fund.

Miss Iola Maynard and her mother, Mrs. George Maynard, were injured when run down by an automobile driven by Joseph Rustad, Monday night. Mrs. Maynard escaped with slight injuries, but her daughter, Miss Iola, was severely injured, suffering broken ribs and severe cuts and bruised about the head and face.

Mrs. Lee Lehman and children, Miss Helen and Clayton, were guests of Mrs. Frank Skill of Homestead Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Sabin of Delray, Fla., who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Jones have returned to their home in Delray.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Geronomo spent Monday in Miami on business.

Rev. and Mrs. O. M. Freeman and son, Harold Freeman, spent Monday in Silver Bluff where Rev. Freeman and son are building a residence.

Mrs. J. M. Dobbin, and Mrs. Flora Meyers and daughter, Miss Bonne Belle Meyers, spent Monday in Miami.

Several from Florida City attended the concert by the Glee Club, at the Homestead School auditorium, Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Klink and two children of Toronto, Canada, have arrived and are visiting at the home of Mr. Klinks father, E. Klink, on Eighth street.

Little Eloise McDavid is quite ill with the influenza.

Percy Hunter has accepted a position with the Florida Motor Transportation Company of Miami.

The Parent-Teacher Association held a meeting at the town hall Friday, January 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Saure of Detroit, Mich., who are spending the winter in Miami, were in Florida City Wednesday calling on friends. Mr. and Mrs. Sauer spent two winters in Florida City.

Miss Pansy Norton, county agent, gave an instructive demonstration on the preparation of foods, at the Community Church, Friday afternoon. The preparation of foods for invalids was the special feature given.

Mrs. Mable King of Coral Gables spent the week-end with her mother, Mrs. M. E. Tanner.

Charles Frat has sold his property on Broadway, including his home place and the lot and dwelling on the opposite side of the street, which is occupied by Mrs. M. E. Tanner. He also included most of his household effects, car and personal property.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Craves motored to Miami Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Houser and son Leo, of Miami, were the guests of Mrs. Minnie Leach Sunday.

Chester Hunter who has been very ill at his home on Avenue B, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter spent Monday at Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. William Severy and infant daughter who have been spending the past month at the home of Mr. Severy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Severy on Palm avenue, returned to their home Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Potter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Farnum of Miami Sunday.

Mrs. Troy Watts, of Los Angeles, Cal., Mrs. Charles Turner, of Brunswick, Ga., and Miss Clarice Fryer, of Atlanta, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cook, Monday. Miss Fryer, will remain for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Schallern entertained Mr. and Mrs. Louis McGahn and four children of Miami recently.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Davis and T. A. Feaster motored to West Palm Beach Sunday where they spent the day with Mrs. Davis' sister, and brother, Mrs. M. D. Bridges, and Frank Lewis.

Mr. G. B. Patrick and Nelo Patterson of Colorado, were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Meade.

Mrs. E. J. Rhodes visited at Coconut Grove with her son, Will Rhodes, and his two children, Lillian and Jack.

W. H. Walker has moved to Florida City this week.

Mrs. Irp and Mr. and Mrs. Hix, and guest, motored to Miami Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hillman were visitors in Miami this week.

W. B. Hillman and Mr. Mullins, built front steps for the Community Church parsonage this week.

Mrs Gertrude Griesbach of Miami spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Griesbach.

Capt. W. H. Kitterman, of Chicago, arrived in Florida City, Friday to spend the winter. He is stopping at the Florida City House. Capt. Kitterman purchased the White property some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Potter were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hough of Redlands, Sunday.

Mrs. Joseph Renaud has returned from a several days trip to Key West.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Caves and daughter, Miss Vera, motored to Miami on business Monday.

Mrs. W. Brooks and daughter, Miss Brooks of Homestead, were visitors in Florida City, Monday. They were former residents of Florida City.

G. C. Conn, of Collingsville, Ontario, Canada, arrived in Florida City this week and is a guest at the Florida City House. Mr. Conn, plans to spend several weeks in Florida City, after which he will visit in Palm Beach and Jacksonville before returning home.

Miss Ethel Janes of Miami is the guest of Miss Alice Shepherd.

Councilman William Bachelor and M. Silverman have been appointed on the Florida City sanitation committee.

JENSEN

MR. and Mrs. W. F. Frederickson motored to Vero on Monday to the St. Lucie County Fair.

W. C. Johnson was a business visitor to Fort Pierce Wednesday.

Mesdames Tyndall and Wartham were in Stuart Wednesday to attend a practice meeting of the Eastern Star.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Turner and Mrs. M. Argo attended Coeburn's Minstrels at Fort Pierce Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Slater of Norwood, Pa., have arrived to spend their honeymoon with Mr. Slater's mother, Mrs. B. F. Slater.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gideon and son Donald are expected to arrive from Kansas this week to visit her parents.

I. E. Whitney and sister, Miss Rose, were in Fort Pierce Thursday on business.

J. H. Toussaint of Rio was in town Wednesday.

Mrs. David Fairweather of New Smyrna is a guest for a few weeks at the home of Mrs. R. R. Ricou.

Mrs. Clem Browning of Stuart was visiting her mother, Mrs. Ricou, on Wednesday.

Mrs. W. C. Carnegie of Sewall's Point, motored to Palm Beach Thursday.

Mrs. A. Bachus entertained at her home Wednesday in honor of the pioneer ladies of this vicinity. Those partaking of her hospitality were Mesdames A. Sorensen, M. Keck, A. Hoofnagle, M. Saeger and W. H. Hansen.

The Pelican Club gave another of their popular dances Wednesday night.

MELBOURNE TEACHER

Mrs. F. D. Williamson is a teacher in the Melbourne public school. She is also the leader of the Baptist Church choir.—Photograph by Baker's Photo Studio.

HOMESTEAD

BRUCE ENNIS, Orlando Wollam and Marguerite Wollam returned to school this week. They were ill several days.

Mrs. J. D. Redd, is recuperating at the home of her mother, Mrs. F. Fleitas.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Turnage, Mr. Minichel, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skill motored to Miami Sunday to attend the ball game.

Miss Nina Drew is still confined to her home though she was reported better Monday.

Miss Permelia Folsom of Monticello, Fla., was the recent guest of Mrs. Harry Cooper.

Miss Lula Whitaker spent several days at the hospital last week, suffering with the influenza.

J. U. Free was a business visitor in Miami Monday.

Judson Strickland is home from Sanford on a visit to his parents.

J. U. Free has purchased two lots across from the Lindeman house on Krome avenue.

M. P. Wollam and T. W. Kuhn motored to Miami, Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith and children have returned home from North Carolina, where they spent the summer months.

Mrs. F. Skill and children, Mrs. J. H. Webster and daughter Alta, and Miss Aileen Mills, motored to Miami Saturday.

Mrs. A. D. Clinton is at the hospital, suffering with a broken hip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyrich, Mr. and Mrs. Meeks and son of Denver, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Free.

VERO

MRS. JOHN CORSA was hostess to a delightful bridge party Friday afternoon at her home on Osceola boulevard. Three tables were used for the games and a prize was given for high score at each table. These were won by Mrs. Herrick, Mrs. Lucy Baird and Miss Margaret Lane each of whom received a beautiful bridge set. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

The 500 party given Monday night at the Vero restaurant by the Aladdin Club, with Mrs. Hamil and Mrs. Miles McNece as hostesses, was one of the pleasant social gatherings of the week. Games were played at six tables. The ladies' high score was made by Mrs. George Noirot and she received a beautiful hand painted china dish. The gentleman's high score was won by Harry Fursch. Consolations were given to Miss Keish of Chicago, and Mr. Krumsieg. The hostesses served cake and coffee.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Carens of Toledo, O. arrived Tuesday night for their regular winter sojourn in their home in Little Farms section. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zeiser, also of Toledo, who are making their first visit to Florida and will stay indefinitely at the R. E. Campbell home in west Vero. Before starting from Toledo, Mrs. Garens slipped on an icy walk and fell, breaking both bones of her left arm. She still finds the arm helpless and carries it in a sling.

Miss Eunice Barrett arrived in Vero Wednesday night from her home in Melrose Highlands, Mass., and will spend the remaining months of the winter at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Double in Osceola Park. This is Miss Barrett's third winter here.

J. J. Hines of Kansas City, Mo., a large property owner and booster here and in other parts of St. Lucie county, was a Vero visitor this week. While here he took in the St. Lucie county fair and pronounced it good.

Albert Nelson of Vero and Allentown, N. J., arrived this week to spend some time in his Vero home and look after extensive property interests here.

The Vero Auxiliary of the American Legion entertained state officers, here on an official visit, at a noon luncheon at the Vero restaurant Thursday. The function was enjoyable both as a social and an informative session.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Alford of Stuart were visitors in Vero Wednesday and attended the St. Lucie county fair.

The Friendship club held a pleasant meeting Friday evening at the home of its president, H. E. Beesley. This was the first regular meeting since the club was organized.

Mrs. H. Clemann, Miss Margaret Clemann, Edward Clemann, and their guest, Miss Margaret Dickey of Rock Island, Ill., motored to Miami Sunday, returning home Monday night.

Dr. Gilbert and family and Mr. and Mrs. Homer Albritton, all of Cleveland, Tenn., were guests Wednesday and Thursday of the J. L. Howard family. They were enroute to Miami.

Miss Lena Sutton, after a pleasant visit with the H. J. Kupper family, left Monday for her home in Orlando.

Mrs. W. O. Davis and little niece Ethel are stopping at Royal Park Inn for an indefinite time.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyle arrived last week from their Cleveland, O., home to spend the winter at their beautiful Riomar place.

Mrs. Ida Toole and little grandson of Alton, Ill., are in Vero for the winter and are located at the W. B. Allison home.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Weber of St. Louis, arrived Tuesday and are the winter guests of her brother, John Deibert at his home west of the city.

Mrs. J. A. Frere and daughter Helen, of Ft. Pierce, were visitors in Vero Wednesday.

COCOA

MR. AND MRS. ARTHUR C. BROWN of Fairhaven, N. J., are in Cocoa for a visit. Mr. and Mrs. Brown are prominent socially in New Jersey and New York, Mr. Brown being a singer formerly with the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Mrs. Enelia R. Capehart who has been spending the late fall in Delaware, O., returned to Cocoa Saturday and is occupying her new home on Derby street.

Mr. P. W. Wirth, a regular winter visitor, is occupying one of the Highland Park Court apartments.

Rev. and Mrs. George T. Bennett and daughter, Miss Hazel are occupying the Travis cottage on Palmetto drive.

Attractive fence posts connected with chains have been placed around the front of the school grounds, in order that the lawns can be improved.

John Garren has been ill for the past 10 days, is showing some improvement. Mr. Garren is one of the oldest settlers in Cocoa.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Taylor of Shiloh spent Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Pierson.

Mrs. Louis Hawley of Chicago, is the house guest of Mrs. E. N. Winslow at her attractive bungalow on Highland Park avenue.

Senator Park Trammel, who spent several days in Cocoa and vicinity, has returned to Washington.

The band concerts Friday evening in front of the Cocoa House given by the municipal band are a great attraction to the many visitors now in Cocoa.

Mrs. J. W. LaRoche delightfully entertained at auction bridge and miscellaneous showers on Tuesday afternoon, honoring Miss Olive La Roche, who will be married to Mr. Clark Yates at an early date. Bridge was played and those holding high and low scores were awarded prizes, the first, a lovely towel to Mrs. L. P. Allen and a consolation to Mrs. M. N. Blythe. Miss LaRoche was the recipient of many beautiful and useful gifts, which were delivered to her in a small express wagon, all of the bundles being tied with pink and white ribbon.

Mrs. Leroy Packard was the charming hostess to Circle No. 2 of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church at her beautiful river front home Tuesday afternoon. After a delightful social hour tempting refreshments of devil's food and fruit cakes and hot coffee were served by the Misses Violet and Dorothy Packard.

Mr. A. P. Michel of Wabasso, manager of the American Fruit Growers' Association of this district, has been a visitor in Cocoa for the past few days.

William H. Fredericks of Cincinnati is a business visitor in Cocoa.

Miss May Fytle of St. Louis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence Lucas.

C. C. Scruggs and Ike L. Holbrook of Atlanta have arrived in Cocoa and are on the selling force of the Cocoa Beach Development Company.

Dr. J. H. Beal of Urbana, Ill., who purchased the F. W. Handy place in Georgiana last year, has arrived for the season.

Mrs. Sam Witz was the hostess at a delightful bridge party last Friday afternoon at her attractive river front home, the occasion being in honor of Miss Freddie Bryan. Mrs. Sherod Owens and Mrs. Thomas Blythe held high score and were awarded the prizes. A delicious salad course was served.

Mrs. Anna S. Rhoads is visiting her son, Dr. Arthur S. Rhoads, for a few weeks.

Royal Corbin Moore of Wayzata, Minn., is guest of his relatives, C. F. Norton and the Misses Moore of Merritt Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Osceola Currier of Newark, N. J., have returned for the winter and are occupying their beautiful river front home.

Jennings Clark has accepted a position with the Brevard Hotel as clerk.

Mrs. H. F. Wallu of Akron, Ohio, is visiting her sister, Mrs. N. F. Reiner.

Isadore Rubin and A. R. Trafford spent several days in Jacksonville on business.

Dr. and Mrs. N. Salvall of Montana are guests at the home of their son, V. H. Salvall.

Dr. and Mrs. O. R. Tomlinson of Tate Springs, Tenn., have returned to the Hotel Indiana River for the season. Charles Walton of New York is visiting his brother, Fred Walton and Mrs. Walton.

E. A. Osteen of St. Cloud, Minn., spent some time here last week on business.

A. H. Smith and family are now occupying their beautiful new home in Valencia Court.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Olson are guests of the family of A. Olsen for the winter.

H. Y. Ambrose and two daughters of Orange, N. J., who spend the winters in Winter Haven, were guests of the Hotel Indian River. Mr. Ambrose is an uncle of Captain Charles Smith of Cocoa.

Miss Freddie Bryan has return to the Bryan King School of Oratory in Pittsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Day have returned to their beautiful winter home in Rockledge.

A New York bank has been unable to transact any business for six days because the combination on the vault is jammed. The department of justice ought to be called on to dissolve it as a combination in restraint of trade.—Southern Lumberman.

LAKE WORTH

MR. and Mrs. A. E. Steere of Reading, Mass., are Lake Worth visitors and expect to remain the rest of the season.

Mrs. Sheffield and Miss Anna M. Cavelly, of Boston, are located at the home of Col. J. W. Sanborn, 420 North H street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Peters and daughter, are recent arrivals from Flat Rock, Mich., to spend the season. Mr. and Mrs. Peters were visitors here four years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kremmel, of Detroit, arrived recently to spend their fourth season and are staying at 211 North P street.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Wilson, of Bayonne, N. J., have taken a cottage at 207 Dixie Highway, for the season.

Miss B. Lewis, Miss Nellie Schipper, Mrs. Golda Osborn and Mrs. Ella McCune attended the business and professional woman's dinner at Winter Garden, West Palm Beach, Tuesday evening.

Members of the Lake worth American Legion Auxiliary are rehearsing for a play they will give February 9 at the city auditorium.

An enjoyable affair was held Monday night at the home of Mrs. C. L. McCoy, South Lakeside Drive, when the Octagon Bridge Club gave a luncheon-bridge, in honor of the Tuesday Bridge Club. The McCoy home was attractively decorated with pink flowers. Favors of pink roses were presented to each guest and pink roses formed the center piece on the table. A four-course luncheon was served. Top score at bridge was held by Mrs. V. L. McCoy who received a green vase. Mrs. J. P. Parks was given a bridge set for second prize. Mrs. Eugene R. Conn was recipient of the consolation, a Madeira piece. Present were: Mrs. J. P. Parks, Mrs. George Fisher, Mrs. Nora Sandalls, Mrs. Mildred Clayton, Mrs. C. A. Barnett, Mrs. Richard Bevington, Mrs. R. N. Hershey, Mrs. Roy Goodman, Mrs. H. F. Nieman, Mrs. E. S. Motter, Mrs V. L. McCoy, Mrs. Egene Conn, Mrs. H. G. Basford, Mrs. W. L. Nutter, Mrs. Ellen Grange, Mrs. Al Engram, Mrs. F. B. Parker, Mrs. R. E. Green, Mrs. Owen Ekey and the hostess, Mrs. C. L. McCoy.

The Ladies' Guild of St. Andrew's Church will meet Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Willard Baker, 501 Lucerne avenue.

The Indiana, Illinois and Iowa division of the Tourist Club will hold a meeting tomorrow at 3 o'clock, in the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. John King, Mrs. Gurney Mumm, J. Leonard Repologle, Douglas Gibbons, Bert Walker, Ed. Hutton and Horace Stebbins of New York and Palm Beach visited the Lake Worth horseshoe courts Wednesday to witness the horseshoe pitching contest between C. C. Davis of Cleveland and Pat Mossman of Eldora, Ia.

Miss Margaret S. Wilson, daughter of the late Woodrow Wilson, accompanied by Miss Rosalie Harburg, was a luncheon guest at the Gulf Stream Hotel Wednesday. Miss Wilson and Miss Harburg came to Lake Worth from Palm Beach.

More than three hundred members of the Lake Worth and West Palm Beach Exchange clubs attended the second annual birthday dinner of the former organization at the Gulf Stream Hotel Tuesday night. Dinner was served at 8 o'clock, dancing was enjoyed on the patio porch. Music was by Hulme's orchestra.

Dr. A. W. Lamar delivered his lecture, "Dix