REMARKABLE PROGRESS SHOWN IN SIX MONTHS' WORK ON DAVIS ISLANDS

MACHINERY VALUED AT $4,500,000 USED IN DEVELOPMENT

All Manner of Physical Improvement Work Advanced In Rapid Fashion

progress-six menths of record-break-

An achievement that has written new chapter into the history of Florlda development-an accomplishment ught about by a well organized and equipment and machinery ers with equipment and machinery valued at $1,500,000.

This briefly, tersely epitomizes the role palyed in the building of Davis Islands by the new owners, Davis Islands, Inc., under the executive management of Stone & Webster, Inc. And this explains in part why Davis Islands today is attracting more fa-vorable comment "at home and broad" than any real estate project in the south.

Propers is Recorded Probably the most obvious result of the broad and amply financed prothe broad and amply financed pro-gram being carried out by Stone & Webster is the dredging. Three mil-lion five hundred and fifty thousand cubic yards of fill have been added to Davis Islands during the last six mouths, bringing the total to date to, almost 11,000,000 cubic yards. Other achievements in the last six months include:

More than 10 miles of sidewalks The total since the project has been under way is nearly 15 miles. Six miles of curbing, bringing the total to approximately 14 miles.

A two and one-half mile extension of the sawall mith the extension of the sawall mith the curbins.

the sanwall, with the manufacture of enough concrete pillugs to practi-cally complete the entire seawall. Nearly six miles of seawall now proot Davis Islands. Four miles of water mains; the tal to date, nine miles.

More than four miles of gas mains; the total to date, seven miles More than two miles of rain drains

Beautification Program Pushed Five miles of sanitary sewers, making a total of nine miles completed. total of 381 to date. on miles of parkway cable; the completed exceeding 18 miles.

175 ornamental lighting standrds and 98 electroleer poles. More than 1,000 palms and shrubs planted in pursuance of the beautification program. Approximately three of streets and parkways now Topsoil totaling 38.987 Reaning and grading of 1,333 lots.

many of which have been seeded for Award of contract for paving 60 atroots, constituting the largest program of highway construction, exclutures, ever projected in Florida. Twen-ty-six miles-more than 500,000 square yards—are included. During the last several days nearly two miles of stroots have been graded and 40,000

FOUR NEW BUSINESSES TO OPEN AT LEESBURG

To Give Recital

Mr. Lewis, former Cieveland pianist, will give a plano recital this afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock at the Bel-Mar better home. Mr. Lewis has been doing Ampico recital work while in Florida, aside from maintaining a studio, where he finds time for teaching.

WOMEN TO OFFICIALLY OPEN NEW STATE ROAD

At Okeechobee City

ARCADIA, March 12. - (Tribune News Service.)-Plans for the colebration on March 24 of the opening of the recently completed Arcadia cross-state highway includes a formal celebration at Okeechobee City when a white ribbon will be stretched from one side of the road to the other, one end held by a woman from Eradenton and the other by a woman from Fort Plegce. A woman from Arcadia will be chosen to cut it.

F. A. Hathaway, head of the state road department, has agreed to deliver an address, and an invitation has been extended to Governor Martin. Among other blg features at the celebration will be a rodeo and other antusements.

A motorende of more than 200 cars and several bands will cross the state from Bradenton to Fort Pierce, the length of the highway. The Arcadia committee is at work and committees are working at other places along the highway to arrange one of the biggest road celebrations ever held in the

The fact that much of this highway opens a new territory where there are few inhabitants makes it more unusual. The 50 miles between Arcadia and Bradenton is sparsely inhabited and yet the country is rich and prom-lsing. The recently completed Lake Anne-Arcadia link of the highway cuts through prairies and also opens a new

The H. E. Wolfe Road Construction Company, of St. Augustine, contrac-tors, who built the last link of the LEESBURG. March 12 .- (Tribune highway, have agreed to help finance and East Coast points by 20 miles.

HAINES CITY HOTEL LEASED HAINES CITY, March 12.—(Tribune News Service.)—Ernest N. Hudson recently took over the Van Buren ho-tell on Ingraham avenue, leasing it from the owner, Hal O. Estes, im-

Most efficient/

Madame Lupescu Denies She Dragged Carol from Throne; Pal, Comrade in His Exile

By LADY DRUMMOND HAY. PARIS, March 12.—(Copyright, 1927, when I tell you that Prince Carol friend I found to be untrue. ly led to believe through libelous re-ports. I am neither a siren, circe by the sunset. Nich waves of pure nor a vampire. I am only a very loyal gold softly frame her face, flower-orgeries" to quote her own words, and ports in the European and Ameriby Universal Service.)—"I am not rock- can press that the Crown Prince of ing the Rumanian throne. Believe me Rumania has abandoned his beautiful did not renounce throne and crown. She is a delicately-bred girl in the for me, as the world has been false-middle twentles. Her half is not red; ricad, and not an obstacle to Prince like in its dainty beauty. Her name Carol's allegiance or duty."

I am revealing the secret of Madame formed me. Of average, height, well built, all curves, exceptionally and Carol of Rumania, as she told it to me in the first and only interview kies, her strikingly milk-white skin she has ever accorded any one. All belies the rumor that she is a Jewess, published interviews are "fakes and She told me she is not a Jewess." Her great beauty would obvious printed about her that she has con- to me her eyes are her chief attrac sulted a noted Paris lawyer as to tion. Not big nor dark, rather light what action she can take to pre- colored, shaded by golden lashes, emphasized by sunny brows, Do you he throne, nor am I holding him back eyes of honest childhood reflect light rom being king. I am his friend, pal from within? Those are Ellen's eyes, nd comrade in exile," she told me. alight with loyalty and faith.

no more than twenty-one in her natblue frock, short skirt, em-ubject nearest her heart. Harrassed by Spies

"I must tell the truth," she started, in her cool little voice, "Long enough have I allowed a libelous pres to satisfy the cravings of a scandal hungry public with suggestive inter-pretations of my relations with Prince Carol, I want you to make it quite clear, to begin with, that I have never, never received and journalist, and that I have never given or issued any statement. This is the first in-terview I have ever given." "Is it true that Prince Carol has separated from you?" I asked, "You will probably see for your Madame Lupescu tells me that for wo years she has been harassed and Prince Carol, I sensed as there, scoluded in the Hotel De Ville, Bucharest buzzing round their apart

"I, have suffered! Dien! How I have suffered! The mental torture, the degradation of being branded as a me, smiling a welcome, and, after bad woman, an adventuress! The horwer had exchanged the first few sen-tences of greeting, Ellen Lupescu set-sentiments I least admit!" Increased tled herself on a hig settee. Looking pallor followed the slight flush as her no more than twenty-one in her nate emotion threatened to overmaster her

No Siren, She Says "People have been saying and writ-ing a lot of cruel-things about me. They would try to make believe that t heartless adventuress detroying the Ellen, am responsible for all the the gesture to the word "The old Oh! It is funny, funny, funny"-but her laugh trailed off suspiciously near a sab—"I meant would be funny if it were not so very shocking." "I say it frankly, that I was fond my friendship, nor did I hesitate to was impetuous, forgetting how evil-minded is the world. However, go I unhappy friend in his troubles. What a scandal, what excitement

"I never bargained for that, I must confess! All the newspapers said we had eloped, and that I was the third voman in the case'! They called me so miscrable in all my life before. "Why didn't you explain sooner?" standing and unhappiness might have been avoided for you."

"I was too proud, too hurt to explain, as you call it," she replied.
"Why should I seek to explain, to "Why should I seek to explain, to excuse myself, to send any kind of message to sensation-hungry news-papers? There is nothing to explain about, Qui s'excuse, s'accuse (who excuses himself, accuses himself), 1 just happened to be the friend of surely needed friendship."

"And why have you changed your mind now? Has anything happened, or going to happen between you and She greeted my question shrug of impatience,

"Nothing has happened, nothing will happen, ours is no vulgar love affair, True friendship is one of the rarest things on earth and sincere palship, honest and stable, between man and woman, perhaps the rarest. Prince friend. He still needs a friend, and so smiling rather wanty at the recollect terests, his welfare, I do not keer am only a very loyal friend, and leginnee or duty."

Madame Lupescu spoke with grea venemence, giving no to understand that she would never stand in the way of reconciliation between Prince Carol and his wife, Princess Helena. Ensconding herself more firmly on the sofa, Ellen Lupesou looked up.

"You understand? It is not so that friendship is greater than so-called love? The one is all sacrifice and confidence, the other so often nothing but selfishness. Thus does it hun me when our so wonderful understand ing and comradeship can be mistaken for an affaire. I would not be so happy, so calm, if they were so, Ash affaire! That can be the matter of ah! It is safe for the whole lifetim

"But, what are you going to do What are your plans for the future? I asked.

Walking towards the big window pescu answered indifferently: "I really haven't thought, In fact course.... and who can'tell? For the time being I am quite happy in Paris; the only thing'l crave is to be telt alone, and allowed to live in peace."

A new TRIBUNE BETTER HOME EXHIBIT on Davis Islands

Open all this week, including Sunday, Mar. 20

Furniture and Draperies by Holtsinger

By popular demand the Tribune Better Homes exhibit has been continued one week, and a new model home opened for inspection on Davis Islands. This home combines all that is beautiful, livable and efficient in its furnishings, arrangement and draperies, china, cut glass, bric-a-brac, lamps, etc., all the product of Holtsinger Furniture Company.

If you have enjoyed your inspection of the Better Homes during the past week, the opportunity is now open to cap the climax with a visit to this home—a true masterpiece in every

And here you will find the fine furniture you have seen at Holtsinger's and you will be able to visualize it as it will appear in your own home. Our expert interior decorators have shown the very apex of their craftsmanship in the arrange, 3 4. ment of the home—and they have had their choice from the entire stock of Tampa's largest furniture store with which to work.

Draperies also are of the finest types. The Holtsinger Drapery Dept. has here displayed the ability for which it is becoming famous in the selection and cut of fine draperies with which this Better Home is equipped.

DRIVE OUT TOMORROW

Open From 2 P. M. to 10 P. M.

Don't miss this opportunity of seeing the home of your ideal, complete in every detail. Drive out tomorrow. It is located on Adriatic Avenue in Davis Islands, just a few minutes' pleasant drive from any part of the city. And when you see the exhibit—come to Holtsinger Furniture Company and inspect the fine furniture now offered at economical prices.

Williams Art Shop

of Holtsinger Furniture Co., supplied all china, cut glass, lamps, bric-a-brac and art pieces for this magnificent, Holtsinger Furniture Co.

209-215 South Franklin Street

"Exclusive But Not Expensive"

Phones 2410 and 2708

MILLER ELECTRIC CO.

101 GRAND CENTRAL AVE.

SEE IT AT THE HOME BEAUTIFUL

Double Action: Powerful Suction

plus Motor-Driven Brush And a dozen unusual efficiency points, from the ball-bearing motor that runs smoothly for years with no oiling, to every detail of construction for easy handling and thorough cleaning. Gets every clinging thread and all the dirt. Ask for demonstration in your own home. CONVENIENT TERMS