

Okeechobee

(Special to The Herald.)

Okeechobee, July 7.—Miss Thelma Alderman has returned from a visit to friends and relatives in Arcadia.

Edgar Lovvorn, who has been quite ill for the past few weeks, is rapidly recovering.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Barnes have arrived from East Beach and will make their home in this city. Mr. Barnes has accepted a position on the Okeechobee Call force.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Wingate have returned from a motor trip through northern Florida and Georgia, after spending a week with Mrs. Wingate's mother at Adele, Ga.

M. S. Holmes has sold out his barber shop to Ralph Holmes, his nephew and partner, and has bought the confectionery establishment formerly owned by J. S. Underhill.

The firm of Austin & Dimick has moved its headquarters from the packing house on the river docks to the Smith farm.

The Fourth of July was celebrated very quietly here. All the stores closed and most of the people spent the day at home. Several parties motored over to Palm Beach to witness the celebration there.

Mrs. D. E. Austin has gone to St. Augustine to accompany her son Douglas back to the hospital. Douglas only recently returned from the hospital after an attack of fever and seemed to be doing nicely, but he has had a relapse.

Frank Armistead, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Armistead of this city, has enlisted in the naval reserve and has been sent to Key West for training.

W. R. Gary, cashier of the Bank of Okeechobee, has just returned from a business trip to Jacksonville.

John F. Williams of this city has gone to Jacksonville to enlist in the navy.