ROOD-FULLER WEDDING AT BRADENTOWN

BRADENTOWN, April 15.—(Special)—A wedding around which more than usual interest is centered, is that which took place Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Gertrude Ellen Rood was united in marriage to Mr. Elton Albert Rood, both of Bradentown. The marriage was solemnized at "Both Sides" Church, the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Rood, uncle and aunt of the bride. Only the relatives of the contracting parties and a few intimate friends being present. The parlor, library, dining room and hall were converted into bowers of beauty and color with dainty green vines and ferns and provisions of pink flowers. The bride's attendants slowly descended the stairway, followed by the dainty bride, on the arm of her father, and passed into the parlor where they were met by the groom and best man, who entered by another way. The pretty wedding party dutifully took their places, and Rev. J. E. Henderson of the Presbyterian Church, upon the ring service spoke the words that made them man and wife. The bride was never more beautiful than on her wedding night. She wore a lovely frock of ivory tulle with satin, hand-embroidered, with tulle of bridal illusion, her bridal veil was held in place by freshly gathered orange blossoms, her white sateen garters peeping from beneath the hem of her skirt, and hand-embroidered in orange blossoms. In her arms she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament worn was an exquisite rope necklace and pendant of seed pearls, a wedding gift from her father. Also, she wore some bride, to win all favors from the god of love, on her wedding night, wore "something old, and something new, something borrowed, and something blue."

Mrs. Walter P. Fuller, a sister-in-law, and herself a bride of a few months, was the matron of honor, attended in a pretty frock of white satin and net. The bride's maids were Miss Laura Wyman, Miss Marjorie Rood and Miss E. D. Harris, all wearing dainty white mill dresses. The attendants carried huge bouquets of pink Killarney roses. The groom and best man wore full evening dress of conventional black with ivory white ties. The wedding music was furnished by Prof. E. D. Wetman, piano, E. C. Bates, violin. Just before the entrance of the bridal party Miss Ruth Harris, sweetly sang, "O Promise Me" (DeKooven) the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of the "Bridal Chorus" (Lohengrin).

The bride's girls to her attendants were a set of old shoulder clasps, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Rood, parents of the groom, to the bride was a mahogany gold mounted chest of solid silver flat ware, handsomely engraved in monogram. Many beautiful presents to the popular young couple. Mrs. Rood is the oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Walter Fuller, and was born and reared in this city. Mr. Rood is a popular and successful business man, being a member of the Rood-Sutton Bradentown Furniture Company, of this city. The young married couple left by automobile for some point from which they will catch a train and off for a bridal trip the destination of which is unknown, or how long they will remain is also an equally undecided question. Mrs. Rood is traveling in a dark tailored suit of gray gabardine cloth, with hat and other accessories to complete a charming effect.

KEECHOBEE ORGANIZES LIVE BOARD OF TRADE

CITIZENS GET TOGETHER FOR PROGRESS

Dr. Darrow Elected President and George T. Rice Secretary—Minutes of Meeting

KEECHOBEE, April 15.—(Special)—As a result of the general opinion that Keechobee's rapid growth and expansion demanded that there should be some organization among the citizens, the object of which should be to deal with questions of a civic nature, such as law and order, sanitation, public utility, and other matters that affect the general welfare of the town, the following call was issued: "To the People of Keechobee: Inasmuch as it has been demonstrated that communities, towns, and cities enjoy their best growth through the organized co-operation and harmonious working of their citizens, Keechobee may profit by such organization. All citizens of Keechobee are therefore respectfully requested to assemble at the public school building at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, April 8, 1915, to consider organization and to discuss matters of general interest."

In answer to this call, there assembled at the appointed place a body of citizens who are deeply interested in this worthy movement and who have the best interests of the town at heart. Many of these equally interested were present by absence from the city and by providential cause from attending the meeting. The following is a transcript of the minutes of the meeting as recorded by the secretary: "At 8:15 o'clock George T. Rice arose and called the meeting to order. He explained the purpose of the meeting and called for nominations for temporary officers. "Mr. Rice was nominated and elected temporary president of the meeting. "Mr. Waters was nominated and elected temporary secretary of the meeting. The chairman addressed the meeting on the advantages of organization, outlining the various questions with which such an organization would have to deal, and opened the meeting for general discussion. "At the conclusion of Mr. Rice's remarks, R. V. Waters spoke on the naming of the organization, and his speech was followed by a general discussion. "W. L. Coats made a motion that the organization be called the Keechobee Board of Trade. This motion was unanimously carried, and upon vote was unanimously carried. "A motion that all permanent officers of the organization be elected at the present meeting and selected from those in attendance was duly made, seconded and carried. "Dr. D. C. Darrow was by acclamation, elected president, and took the chair. The president then made an able address to the meeting concerning the spirit of progress and co-operation which prompted the meeting, and briefly outlining a general plan of procedure. "A motion that voting for officers in event of the committee on the duties of any one office, be done by ballot, and that the chairman be empowered to appoint tellers, was duly made, seconded and on vote carried. Officers Elected: "The chairman appointed J. R. Waters for the elections, and instructed the secretary to prepare ballots. "The result of the balloting was as follows: W. L. Coats was elected first vice president; H. H. Hancock was elected second vice president; G. T. Rice was elected secretary and treasurer; R. V. Waters was elected by unanimous vote of the meeting. "A motion that a committee of three to be known as the committee on constitution and by-laws, and whose duty it shall be to compile and submit to the next meeting a tentative draft of a constitution and set of by-laws be adopted, was made, seconded, and on vote unanimously carried. "Following this the chairman called for nominations for this committee the following were nominated: C. H. Simmons, Otto Scharfshewski, W. L. Bragg, R. V. Waters, T. B. Owens, Geo. T. Rice, B. M. Churchhill, Dr. F. E. Thomason, and H. H. Hancock. "R. V. Waters, T. B. Owens and T. B. Owens were elected by a majority vote. "At the close of the voting the voters were duly discharged. "A motion by Mr. Hancock that the committee on constitution and by-laws incorporate in their tentative draft by-law providing for a regular meeting time for the organization, such meeting time to be 7:30 p. m., on the first and third Mondays of each and every month, and to provide for special meetings to be called by the president or vice president in the absence of the president, was duly seconded and on vote carried. "A motion was duly made, seconded, and carried that the names of those present be taken and that they be recorded as charter members of the organization. "Charter Members: "The names of those who signed as charter members of the organization are the following: F. J. Babille, B. M. Churchhill, A. D. Clarkson, W. L. Coats, D. C. Davidson, E. D. Edwards, M. C. Gibson, H. H. Hancock, M. J. Gibson, E. M. Meserve, F. M. Moberly, J. E. Nash, T. B. Owens, M. D. Raulerson, Peter Raulerson, G. T. Rice, C. N. Roach, Otto Scharfshewski, C. P. Simmons, C. H. Simmons, M. H. Thomas, Dr. F. E. Thomason, H. H. Walker, J. R. Waters, R. V. Waters, Ewell Wright, W. S. Hancock. "A motion by Mr. Coats that each present and future member pay a membership or initiation fee of two dollars, that the charter members present their membership fee to the treasurer at the next meeting, that the said membership fee accompany all future applications for membership, and that the committee on constitution and by-laws incorporate in their draft of a constitution, provision for monthly or annual dues, was duly seconded and carried. "Respectfully submitted, (Signed): Geo. T. Rice, Secretary."

MULBERRY HOST GIVES TURKEY DINNER

MULBERRY, April 15.—(Special)—Lawrence Clark entertained about thirty-five of his friends at an old-fashioned turkey dinner Friday night at the Prairie Trading Company. Those assisting were Mrs. S. Loeb, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. A. H. Ford. Misses Gipsy and Carrie Martin were the hostesses Tuesday afternoon at seven tables of five hundred. The large living room was beautifully decorated with quantities of red flowers and ferns. Mrs. J. M. Dixon received the first prize for making the highest score. The consolation was cut by Mrs. Paul Goss and the hobby fell to Mrs. Henry Pratt. Those invited were Mesdames J. W. Keel, Wayne Warfield, Reynolds of Tampa, Dixon, Pratt, Goss, West, Carter, John Campbell, Murphy, Read, Denny of Plant City, Mrs. E. D. Wetman, Harry H. Plummer, Harry Pierce, Bert Pierce, Gladys Windham, and Misses Ford, Windham, Larwood and Blood. Punch was served during the game and salad course after the game. Among those who motored to Lakeland Friday night to attend the minstrel were Misses Hattie Blood, Cora Martin, Virginia Windham, Messrs. Chas. Blood, Joe Windham, Kenneth McDonald and Harry Volmer of Pierce. Miss Elaine Harpers of Bartow is giving a series of dancing lessons in our city, the class was held at the residence of Miss Lila Ford Wednesday night. Misses Virginia Windham and Cora Martin will attend the "Charity Ball" in Bartow Friday night. The guests of Mrs. J. E. Windham, Mrs. Parks Read has as her guest Mrs. Donny of Plant City. Miss Purdon of DeLand is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. R. Murphy.

EUCALYPTA IS DONNING ITS GAY SPRING DRESS

PROSPECTS VERY BRIGHT FOR BUSY SEASON

Guavas, Melons and Peaches Are Ripe—Dixie Canning Co. Has an Extensive Plant

EUCALYPTA, April 15.—(Special)—With ripe guavas, melons, peaches, growing corn, blooming grasses, cows in the pasture, plenty of fresh vegetables, and whatnot, prospects were never brighter at Eucalypta. Professor Jones has returned from a two weeks' sojourn in Lakeland, where he is connected with the business college. Sunday is preaching day here. Mr. Jones has returned in time to conduct services and a large congregation is expected to meet under the beautiful, widespread oaks in Professor Thornton's yard. "The groves were God's first temples." The dearth of seed velvet beans is causing some of our growers to take more interest in the growing of beans than any other bean extant. A beautiful bean and a great soil builder. Your correspondent had the good fortune recently to visit the establishment of the Dixie Canning Company, located at Auburndale, Polk County. This is a great business, though in its infancy, a business of which not only Polk County, but all Florida and the entire country, as to that, should be proud. Mr. Langly, the head of the establishment, took profound pleasure in showing us through, opening cans and jars, allowing us to sample the many products of sub-tropical fruits; perhaps a better chosen word would be bi-products; but Mr. Langly, so kind and obliging, could not tell us certain secrets connected with the manufacture of these delicious products, and we were not disappointed. Of course, the delicious, delicate flavors of the mince-meat, a blending of the orange, grapefruit, banana, guava and cassava, also the butters, pickles, jellies, preserves, etc. made of these various sub-tropical fruits, and even the pure grapefruit itself in the cans, all beggar description. The entire floor of the plant is concrete, and at the end of each day, hose is turned on, the floor scrubbed and rinsed and everything left clean and sweet. Mr. Langly told us that notwithstanding not one cent had been expended advertising and selling orders, they come from everywhere and many, many times more than they are able to fill. This fine establishment, but a big business in embryo, serves to strengthen the argument that an over-production of citrus fruits is the merest possibility; also that the odoriferous guava is going to make South Florida even greater than citrus Florida. The new paper of Fort Meade, appears to have made an auspicious start and best success is predicted for it.

PRIZE DANCE, BALLAST POINT TONIGHT

ST. PETE KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS WILL BUILD HANDSOME NEW HOME IS PROPOSED

Work Will Start August 1—Citizens Aroused Over Question of Right to Amend Charter

ST. PETERSBURG, April 15.—(Special)—A vote was cast for the local lodge of Knights of Pythias will be started in August, according to the plans adopted by the lodge at its meeting last night. Two buildings on the lot at Sixth Street and First Avenue North are now rented and work cannot begin until the lease expires. The new home will be a handsome one. W. E. Wendell has sold to Frank J. Stamm of this city three city blocks in Gulfport. The property is on Lakewood Avenue. Mr. Stamm expects to build several cottages during the summer and will develop his property into an attractive district of the growing city. R. J. Wilson, for the last three years a resident of Bantix, has bought the property from Ralph Prather or will conduct the business along the same lines as the local man. The studio made a specialty of maps and drawings. Mr. Wilson is an engineer and expects to do much work in this line. Mr. Prather has not decided what he will do. Can the people of St. Petersburg amend the city charter? That is a question that is now being raised. The charter says the people, by vote, can amend the charter at any time, but it is now being argued that the Legislature cannot delegate its power to amend charters without an amendment to the constitution. An election is to be held here April 20 to vote on an amendment changing the time of holding elections for commissioner. The time set in the charter is May 4, and it is contended that this time cannot be changed by the people so that the election May 20 is a farce. The courts may be called on to decide the point.

A Simple Way to Remove Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingers. In the morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have. You will find that itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

MANY IMPROVEMENTS NOTICED AT RUSKIN

PROPERTY OWNERS DOING GOOD WORK Correspondent Sees a Manatee—Mrs. E. A. Lyman Succumbs to Sudden Heart Attack

RUSKIN, April 15.—(Special)—Tom Williams is fencing and otherwise improving his home and farm tract. Mr. Buckley is fencing his lots on Gillman Street. Mr. Yinger is putting up a two-story house on Third Street and has it well under way. Mr. Mauring has a cement foundation already built for his two-story bungalow on Bethany Avenue and work is progressing on the building. The Yinger tract, located four miles up the Manatee River, is clearing his 100-acre farm and setting out citrus fruit. He has fifty acres already planted and eighty acres well under way. He intends putting the whole farm into fruit. "Saw a Manatee." A manatee has been seen in Ruskin Inlet. Your correspondent, who happened to be the favored one, was fishing off the bank of Ruskin Inlet Tuesday morning near the Priory. He had caught a fine fish and cast his line, hoping to catch another as good, when the line was instantly caught and parted at the end of the pole as though cut with a knife. He held the part of the line fastened down the pole, made it fast near the end of the pole, put on a hook and a piece of shell, which he found nearby, to sink the line. This took a few minutes, when he again cast the line, hoping to catch what he supposed to be a large fish with a vicious temper; imagine his astonishment when there rose to near the surface, not more than ten feet from where he stood and near the line, what he always has been told is a manatee. He was not aware of such things ever existing. It looked to be nearly three feet long. The latter part of the body like a fish with a tiny tail, the fore part of the body more like a large baby with plump fat arms. It was medium gray in color, with bands of white around neck and arms, although the head, which was more round and a little the shape of a catfish, was very light in color. As it swam away, swimming as a dog swims, alternately using the paws, he could only compare it to a large baby. He watched it swim leisurely about fifty feet before it sank down out of sight. Mrs. Lyman Dead. Mrs. E. A. Lyman passed into the beyond at 9 o'clock Tuesday evening. The transition was sudden, death resulting from heart failure. She leaves a husband and four sons to mourn her loss; one,

Thursday, Rev. Mr. Barber officiating. The remains will be interred in Ruskin Cemetery. Mrs. Lyman had become noted for her kind and generous deeds. She had won her way into many hearts and a large circle of friends will miss her. The sympathy of all is with the bereaved husband and their devoted sons. Mrs. L. L. Dickman is suffering from a relapse of brain fever and is very low. Mrs. Deane and her daughter, Mrs. Rolley, are entertaining Mrs. Salisbury, from Chicago. Clyde Amberg has gone to Bartow, where he has a situation for the summer. The Ruskin College School again took up its work after a week's vacation, Monday morning. Cards have been received from Miss Harriet Orsutt, en route for Quincy, Mich., by her Ruskin friends. She had reached Toledo, O., at the last writing.

Exclusive Virginia Park

THE High Restrictions

Which we have placed on this property has supplied the home builders of Tampa with the class of home sites which they have LONG DESIRED but heretofore have been UNABLE TO OBTAIN.

The fact that the majority of the purchasers in Virginia Park have bought for the purpose of building homes is in itself sufficient proof of the desirability and great popularity of this exclusive residential section—and EVERY ONE of these homes will cost $2,500 OR MORE to build.

Its Natural Location cannot be excelled—situated as it is on the highest ground, midway between the two Bays, cooled by perpetual breezes, easily accessible to the city by street car and boulevards, right in the path of Tampa's recognized future growth, no finer spot for a home could be found.

In a Very Short Time these beautiful lots will be selling for a GREAT DEAL MORE than we are asking for them NOW. The $2,500 building restriction and the Improvements, together with its Natural Location, GUARANTEES THE FUTURE OF VIRGINIA PARK.

THE HIGH-CLASS IMPROVEMENTS—Water, Sewer, Cement Sidewalks, Graded and Paved Streets—provides every convenience for the Home Builder, AND WITHOUT COST.

LOOK A LITTLE INTO THE FUTURE—Picture to yourself how VIRGINIA PARK will look with its fine streets, lined with beautiful homes—THINK what comforts you would have in living here, what a sure investment it would be for your savings—THINK of the low price we are selling these lots for—THINK of what they will be selling for one year from now.

Come in and see us, or call us up—1836.

HARBOR OAKS CLEARWATER, FLORIDA

The Pearl of the Pinellas Peninsula

Look over the whole of Florida, from Jacksonville, its gateway, to Tampa, the southern metropolis of the State, and you will find Harbor Oaks, overlooking the Gulf, the most ideal location for a winter or all-the-year-round home. The natural beauty of the place is unsurpassed and modern improvements have been added, so the home-maker has but to erect his bungalow or mansion

Location and Improvements

Harbor Oaks is a section of dainty Clearwater town, the county seat of Pinellas, located on Clearwater Bay. Close to Harbor Oaks is the famous Bellevue Hotel, with its beautiful grounds and its magnificent thirty-six hole golf links. In 1887 a commission of the American Medical Association selected the site of Harbor Oaks as the most healthful spot in the United States. Harbor Oaks has been laid out as a charmingly picturesque and desirable location for homes. Storm sewers have been laid, sanitary sewerage and a water system have been installed, with laterals to each lot. When all underground work is done asphalt streets, cement sidewalks and curbs were laid and the margins beautifully parked. The fine century-old oaks that adorn the property, and the grapefruit and orange trees, were not unnecessarily molested in making these improvements.

Colony of Congenial Folks

Harbor Oaks presents ideal conditions for the building up of a community of congenial people. It is not meant to be exclusive or limited to persons of great means. It is for "just home folks" used to comforts without extravagance. It is a long way out of the ordinary residence proposition. You should write immediately for detailed information or, better still, visit Harbor Oaks, view its beautiful location and see for yourself what we have and appreciate its many charms.

There remain a number of choice locations, and these new are offered
