CENTER IS PROPOSED

LAKELAND, Fla., Sept. 17.—That Polk county and the city of Lakeland can he made a great center of musical culture was the view expressed by Joseph H. Chamberlain of the Lakeland Choral club, it an address before the Civitan club at the regular weekly luncheon meeting. As out lined in his talk, the idea is to organize in Bartow and in Winter Haven choral clubs similar to that organized here in Lakeland, and to gather the three clubs together at Stated intervals in each of the three clites for massed concerts.

The purpose would be to stimulate a liking for good music and to make these communities talked of through out the South because of being cultural centers. President Charles A. Kaymond named Civitans Chamber lain, Anderson, Allyn and Watkins as special committee to work up a definite plan for following out Director Chamber lain's suggestions.
