

Men Who Are Helping to Build the East Coast of Florida

F. C. VAN DE SANDE, a New Smyrna photographer, is making a visible record of the rapid growth of that portion of the East Coast.

CITY COUNCIL PRESIDENT.—H. H. De Yarman, Okeechobee council president, is also manager of the Standard Oil Company there.

OKEECHOBEE MERCHANT.—Is one of Abe Freedman's activities. He is a large property owner and realty dealer.

MAYOR CONELY.—T. W. Conely is mayor of Okeechobee, and county attorney, and practices law.

OKEECHOBEE'S C. OF C. PRESIDENT.—Don P. Johnston is president of three Okeechobee civic organizations and manager of a local realty firm.

LAKE WORTH PHARMACIST.—A. I. Engram, manager of Engram Brothers' Pharmacy at Lake Worth.

G. E. COON, OF BOYNTON.—A prominent citizen and business man of Boynton, Fla.

MELBOURNE COUNCILMAN.—H. L. Ewing was the first president of the Melbourne State Bank. He is now a member of the city council.

HEAD OF JUPITER INLET WORK.—Earl Menges of Lake Worth is a civil engineer in charge of the work at Jupiter Inlet.

FORMER POSTMASTER.—O. J. Price resigned as postmaster of Okeechobee to enter the real estate business.

MELBOURNE REALTOR.—W. N. Berryman, one of Melbourne's most active and successful realtors.

NEW SMYRNA DRUGGIST.—W. T. Goodyear is manager of the Little Drug Company of New Smyrna.

PIONEER CITIZEN.—One of Lake Worth's pioneer citizens and civic workers, F. M. Burbach.

TALLAHASSEE LOSES ONE.—L. E. Barlow, a Melbourne furniture man, he came from Tallahassee.

A BOYNTON BOOSTER.—A. H. Bechtel, president of the Bechtel Cork Company, Toledo, Ohio, is interested in Boynton real estate and is building a home there.

AN OKEECHOBEE PASTOR.—Rev. H. Lee, pastor of the Methodist Church at Okeechobee.

SUPREME COURT JURIST.—James K. Stump, attorney of Lake Worth, is a member of the Supreme Court of Florida.

FURNITURE MAN.—J. V. Cadieu has been in the furniture business at Melbourne for several years.

POLICE CHIEF.—Clint Bass of Okeechobee acts as master of ceremonies at the local rodeo. He was a former cowman and is a rodeo shot.

NEW CHURCH FOR OKEECHOBEE.—Rev. E. L. Shuler has just announced the completion of the financing for a new Baptist church at Okeechobee.

INLET COMMISSIONER.—E. E. Greene, president of the Lake Worth Lumber Company, has been elected inlet commissioner of District 2.

NEW C. OF C. SECRETARY.—William L. Small became secretary of the New Smyrna chamber of commerce September 1.

NEW SMYRNA REALTOR.—Harry J. Osteen, real estate dealer of New Smyrna.

STATE REPRESENTATIVE.—L. W. Jennings, legislator from Okeechobee. He is also city attorney there.