

May 27, 1952

Dear Mr. President:

I herewith tender my resignation as Assistant Attorney General, United States Department of Justice, to be accepted at your pleasure.

I deeply appreciate the confidence which you reposed in me by appointing me an Assistant Attorney General. My warm friendship and high esteem for you prompts me to add that it has been both an honor and a pleasure to have been a part of your Administration. Under your great leadership my tenure in office has been a great satisfaction to me.

Respectfully,

Wm. Amory Underhill
Assistant Attorney General

The President
The White House
Washington, D. C.