tained by American executive authority, which in the first place while refusing to recognize Lenin and Trotsky have, by executive order of recognition, accepted Calles and Obregon, who are the enthusiastic supporters of the bolshevik concept of government.

"We furthermore point to the significance of the patronage bestowed upon these military despots by the continuance of such recognition, and particularly by the discriminating favoritism shown to Calles by the continuance of the embargo, which makes the Calles ascendancy possible.

"We call upon the president and the state department to put an end to this ignominious contempt which has been shown by Calles for Americans' appeal and to resolutely demand protection for American citizens and that they be treated with the same consideration and respect which is shown to Mexican citizens in this country.

"The method of 'watchful waiting' or any other such procedure is over. We, as American citizens, demand of our government that this action be taken forthwith."

Demand was made for protection of American citizens and for their treatment with the same consideration and respect that is shown to Mexicans in this country.

The religious situation in Mexico as it affects the Catholic Church was considered one of the most important questions before the convention and had been under consideration since it convened last Monday. A special committee, appointed to consider the matter, reported today and its report was unanimously adopted.

The American Federation of Labor and affiliated organizations were urged to cooperate to safeguard "not only American right, but the hard-won victories of labor itself to protect it from servile submission to despotic authority."

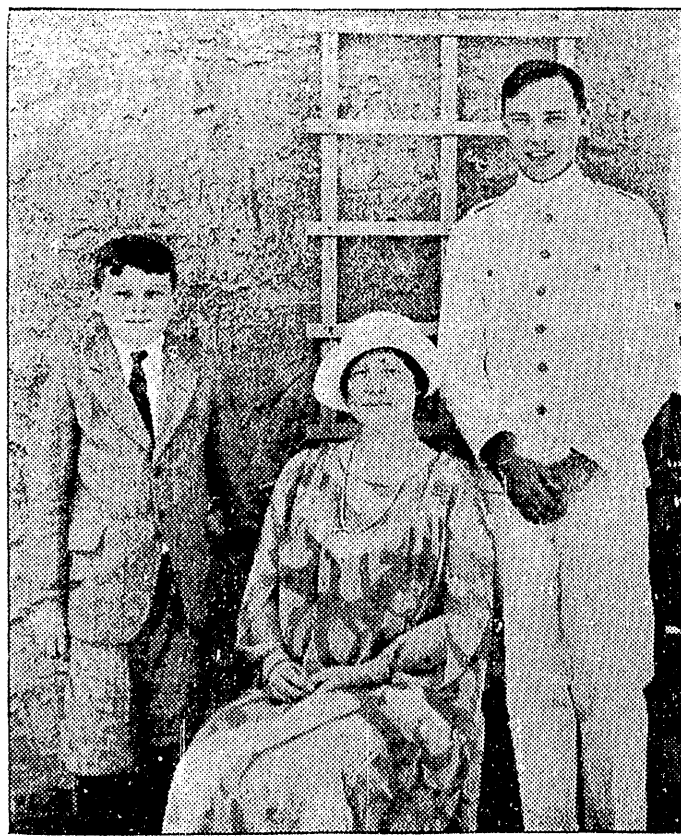

CATHOLIC SPOKESMAN DENIES "REBEL" CHARGE

MEXICO CITY, August 5.—"In case of a foreign invasion, the Catholics would be the first to die in the defense of Mexico." With this declaration Manuel Herrero Lasso, spokesman for the Catholic church, in a debate with Secretary of Agriculture Luis Leon on the religious question, contradicted the charges made by the latter that the Catholic clergy is inspired by rebel sentiments and ready to seek assistance abroad to redeem a cause already lost at home.

"But we are not in the days of the Apocalypse and we are not in the presence of anti-Christ," said Secretary Leon. "We are engaged in a struggle when we should be working together for the welfare of the country."

Secretary Leon reviewed Mexican history, pointing out the terrible wars of the past century which resulted in the loss of much territory and power. He declared that the clergy are fighting for economic control in order to secure a political grasp on the country. He asserted that documents in possession of the agrarian commission show that priests threatened eternal punishment for Indians who worked the government for ejidos, or community lands.

FAMILY ACCOMPANIES ARMY OFFICER

The family of Maj. George Blair, regular army officer assigned to the southern Florida district for instruction among officers' reserve men, accompanies him where Uncle Sam orders. They arrived last week, are stopping at the Everglades, and will make their residence at 1029 Valencia avenue, Coral Gables. The older son, Russell, will enter the third year at West Point this fall, and Robert will enter school here.—Herald Photograph, Lemmon.

Archbishop Mora del Rio, who illness was yesterday reported as quite serious, was worse today. The prelate is now confined to his bed with symptoms of a nervous breakdown increasingly apparent, and with fever. The archbishop's health is a matter of grave concern to the Catholics of Mexico. Archbishop Pascual Diaz is transacting affairs at Mora's bedside.

WOMAN IS INDICTED FOR ALLEGED PLOT

MEXICO CITY, August 5.—(AP)—Senorita Dolores Lemus, city hall stenographer, who was charged with a number of others and charged with plotting against the life of President Calles because of his stand on the religious question, was formally "consigned" by the attorney general's department today. This is equivalent to indictment and means that she will be held in jail for formal trial.

U. S. TO PROTEST LAND LAWS OF MEXICANS

WASHINGTON, August 5.—The Mexican situation assumed a new aspect tonight, when it was learned that Secretary of State Kellogg is preparing a strong note on the alien land and petroleum laws.

It is understood the note will be delivered by Ambassador James R. Sheffield to Mexico City just before his proposed vacation to the United States. He is to sail from Vera Cruz on August 12. A draft of the note was said to have been submitted to Mr. Kellogg

PRIMARY INQUIRY ENDS

Reed Adjourns Session After Promising To Cite Insult Lawyer For Contempt.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.) CHICAGO, August 5.—Winding up its inquiry into Illinois' recent million dollar primary, the senate campaign funds committee today heard some frank statements and serious charges and had still another witness challenge its authority. In announcing adjournment of the committee subject to his call, Senator Reed, Democrat, Missouri, the chairman, said it probably would be some time before the investigators assembled again, but added that they were ready to go into any serious charges of primary irregularities.

Frank L. Smith, chairman of the Illinois Commerce Commission, Daniel J. Schuyler, counsel for Samuel Insull, Chicago Utilities magnate, who contributed heavily to Smith's successful campaign for the senate; George T. Safford, superintendent of the State Anti-Saloon League and Morris Eller, Republican boss of Chicago's twelfth ward, were the principal witnesses at the final sessions.

Schuyler told of disbursing $22,929.19 for Insull on behalf of Smith's candidacy and of giving $3,600 of his own money to the Smith campaign fund, but he declined to say whether he had distributed large sums for Insull to candidates other than those in the race for the senatorial nomination.

UPON Schuyler's flat refusal to answer, Senator Reed told him the committee would report his case to the senate with a view to contempt proceedings. Similar notice had been given to Samuel Insull, State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe of Cook county, and Thomas W. Cunningham, treasurer of the Republican state central committee in Pennsylvania, all of whom declined to answer certain questions.

Charges that County Judge Edmund Jarecki and Election Commissioner Czarniecki appointed "ex-convicts and gunmen" as election judges and clerks in his ward were made to the committee by Eller, who is identified with the powerful Crowe-Barrett Republican organization of Cook county.

Senator Reed asked for a list of the "ex-convicts and gunmen" and in response Eller sent in a score or more of names by messenger late in the day and they were admitted to the record as part of his testimony. Eller told the committee that he had "a wonderful organization, the best in Chicago," in his ward and that it was due to this that he was able to poll an "almost unanimous vote" for his ticket. "Realizing he had six members of his family on the Chicago city payroll, he said he got his lieutenants jobs with the city or county whenever they wanted them."

ROLLING STOCKINGS ON STREET LEADS TO WORKHOUSE TERM

NEW YORK, August 5.—(AP)—Rolling her stockings on Fourteenth street just off Fifth avenue today cost Miss Frances Rathowitz three months in the workhouse. The arresting policeman told the court that Miss Rathowitz had caused a crowd to collect by her action and when he had remonstrated with her she had called him various names. The workhouse term was imposed after fingerprint records had revealed that the young woman had been twice convicted on other charges.

by the ambassador. It is to be returned to him if the secretary of state approves.

"The note in no way concerns the church war, nor has it been prompted by it, it was learned. In fact, the situation in regard to the confiscation of foreign lands and the regulations of the petroleum industry was far from settled before the edict against the churches was made effective.

PRIEST WHO YIELDED TO LAW SUSPENDED

MEXICO CITY, August 5.—(AP)—Father Dimas Angulano, the Catholic priest of Alvarado, state of Vera Cruz, who accepted President Calles' government religious regulations, has been excommunicated and suspended from the priesthood.

Bishop Guizar Y. Valencia of Vera Cruz, who at present is in Mexico City, has issued a manifesto to this effect.

Expelled Bishop Going to Rome. ROME, August 5.—Bishop Tito Crespí, secretary of the papal legation at Mexico City, who was expelled from Mexico, called the Vatican today that he is proceeding to Washington. From Washington he will return to Rome to make his report on the situation in Mexico.

TRAINED WORKERS NEEDED IN AGRICULTURE, SAYS JARDINE

WASHINGTON, August 5.—(AP)—More trained men and women are needed in agriculture to meet its problems, in the opinion of Secretary Jardine, who declared today that this was an integral part of any sound program for the permanent betterment of the farm situation.

SEARCH FOR BONDS ENDS

Tracy and His Escorts Return to Okeechobee But Decline to Tell Whether $110,000 Treasure Was Recovered in Everglades; Convict Taken to Jacksonville.

(HERALD SERVICE.) OKEECHOBEE, Fla., August 5.—Whether the Everglades cache, which Joe Tracy, Ralford convict and former member of the Ashley gang, gained temporary freedom from the state prison to find, was discovered with its $110,000 in stolen Liberty bonds, remains a mystery tonight.

Tracy, guarded by a special prison detail, arrived in Okeechobee early this morning, after having given up an unnamed point near Uptegrove, Fla., to reveal the spot where the fortune was said to have been buried after one of the many Ashley gang raids on East Coast banks and business institutions.

Chief of Police Clint Bass, however, is of the belief that the bond cache was found and that Tracy and his escorts were instructed to give no details of the search. Tracy did say, the chief declared, that his work was finished in this section and that the officers were on their way back to the state penitentiary at Raiford.

On leaving Okeechobee yesterday, Tracy and his escorts went to West Palm Beach, returned to Canal Point and from there went to Uptegrove, eight miles south of here, near which the treasure is thought to have been buried.

CUMMINS' STORY HALTED BY DEATH

Iowa Senator Had Started To Write Autobiography.

DES MOINES, August 5.—(AP)—A desire to pay tribute to his parents prompted Senator Albert B. Cummins to start an autobiography, the introduction of which was begun shortly before his death here Friday. In the manuscript, now in possession of his daughter, Mrs. Hollis A. Rawson, of Des Moines, the senator wrote:

"I was born on the fifteenth day of February, 1859, in a respectable log house about a mile and a half east of Carmichaels, Green county, Pennsylvania, and lived there until the sixteenth day of August, 1869. My father, Thomas Layton Cummins, was a carpenter—the hardest working and most upright man I have ever known. It was to render a tribute to my father and mother that I moved me to write something about my life and whatever gratification I feel in this will arise chiefly to make those who come after me acquainted with my father and mother. With only a few paragraphs complete, the manuscript, which was to have grown into a large volume, is now a family treasure.
