Dear Bill:

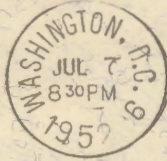

It was very kind indeed of you to write me as you did on July 4, 1952, and I am most appreciative of the sentiments expressed by you.

It has been both a personal and an official pleasure to have been associated with you during the time we have worked together and I do hope that you will let us hear from you from time to time in the future.

Wishing you continued success in your future endeavors and with kind personal regards,
I am

Sincerely,

Clyde
