FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

July 9, 1952

Honorable William Amory Underhill
1830 K Street, N. W.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Underhill:

With your departure from the Department of Justice, where you have served for so many years, I want you to know that you take with you my very best wishes for a happy and successful career in private life.

I have always been impressed with your helpful spirit and cooperative attitude. You may rest assured that your many friends in the FBI join me in expressing our regret at seeing you leave.

It was most kind of you to write as you did on July 4, 1952, and I certainly appreciate your expressions.

With best wishes and kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover
